SEC. 41. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or permits to be landed any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall pay the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a tax of $10 for each alien seaman so landed, unless such alien seaman is entitled to land in the United States free of tax under section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917, or is a bona fide member of the crew of a vessel touching at a port of the United States during a temporary stop en route to a foreign port, or is a seaman employed on such vessel solely in connection with the treatment of the sick or injured members of the crew, or is a stowaway. Such tax shall be paid before such vessel departs from the port of arrival, and in the event such tax is not paid it shall constitute a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which such port is located. The Secretary of Labor is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations governing the administration of the provisions of this section, including the establishment of such bonds or deposits as may be required to insure compliance therewith.

(b) Any owner, agent, charterer, master, or consignee of any vessel who knowingly brings to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who does not have in his possession an unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by section 2 of the Immigration Act of 1917, or who knowingly brings to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who has been excluded from admission to the United States and deported therefrom, unless such alien specifically secured and had in his possession at the time of departure from such place a waiver of such exclusion, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules governing the refusal of clearance or the withholding of clearance papers of vessels arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and the conditions under which such clearance papers may be granted notwithstanding the refusal of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to pay the tax imposed by this section or to deport any alien seaman.

SEC. 42. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or permits to be landed any alien seaman (other than a member of the crew who is destined to a port in the United States and is in possession of a valid seaman's identification certificate and passport visaed by an American consular officer) shall cause such alien seaman to be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and such alien seaman shall not be permitted to land in the United States except upon certificate by such immigration officer that such alien seaman has been found admissible to the United States under the immigration laws and has complied with the applicable provisions of section 4 of the Immigration Act of 1917, or is a bona fide member of the crew of a vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and shall be permitted to land in the United States except upon certificate by such immigration officer that such alien seaman has been found admissible to the United States under the immigration laws and has complied with the applicable provisions of section 4 of the Immigration Act of 1917, or is a bona fide member of the crew of a vessel touching at a port of the United States during a temporary stop en route to a foreign port, or is a seaman employed on such vessel solely in connection with the treatment of the sick or injured members of the crew, or is a stowaway. Such examination shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner(s), after which inspection it will be decided whether such seaman may be admitted to the United States or detained for special inquiry under the immigration laws. Such seaman may be required to deposit such sum as may be necessary, not exceeding $500, to insure his maintenance while detained, and such deposit may be increased in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or of any officer in charge. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inquiry in respect of any such alien seaman, or pending the removal of any such alien seaman who may be found inadmissible, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the inquiry upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such expenses and such bond as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Upon the refusal of clearance papers to any vessel, the Secretary of Labor may grant clearance in ballast to any port in the United States designated by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such port charges, fees, and expenses as may be required by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on some other vessel scheduled to depart within one hour after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or who departs from the United States without the permission of the immigration officer in charge, or who fails to perform any duty required of him by any immigration officer or by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of the time he may have been in the United States, the length of time he may have been employed in the United States, the circumstances under which he was employed, and the hardship that he or his family may suffer upon deportation, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to depart temporarily from the United States without the deposit required by this section, upon the giving of a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such amount and containing such conditions as the Secretary may prescribe, to guarantee the return of such alien seaman to the United States for the performance of such duties as may be required of him and for his departure upon the expiration of the time granted by the Secretary of Labor for his departure.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, but in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 583) dated not be received on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 583) dated not be received on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival, and in the event such time is impossible, while it remains pending: not shall such time be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such time.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted vessel having failed to have reported by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been inspected, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to some part prescribed by section 38 of said Act, and the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list containing the names of all members employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the crew who are destined to the United States and those who are in possession of a valid seaman's identification certificate and passport visaed by an American consular officer, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such list shall be verified by the oath of the master, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel in respect of whom such inquiry occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inquiry, nor shall any such vessel depart from the port of arrival: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on some other vessel scheduled to depart within one hour after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or who departs from the United States without the permission of the immigration officer in charge, or who fails to perform any duty required of him by any immigration officer or by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman by reason of the time he may have been in the United States, the length of time he may have been employed in the United States, the circumstances under which he was employed, and the hardship that he or his family may suffer upon deportation, he may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to depart temporarily from the United States without the deposit required by this section, upon the giving of a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such amount and containing such conditions as the Secretary may prescribe, to guarantee the return of such alien seaman to the United States for the performance of such duties as may be required of him and for his departure upon the expiration of the time granted by the Secretary of Labor for his departure.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 11. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multimale deportee, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or who fails to pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every fine or alien seaman provided for in this section shall be a lien upon the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from the place outside thereof, or its equivalent value in money, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States in which she shall arrive or shall be found.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall remit any fine or portion thereof imposed by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, the person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 30 of the Act of February 9, 1917, have been intended, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act prompt been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and describing those to be held on board in the port of arrival; or lists corresponding so much of such information as can be ascertained from the crew list, and stating the additional information required as to those to be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival (Form 588) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posted upon the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like manifests and lists of all the persons on board such vessel, whether the same be passengers, members of the crew, or others, in the manner and form and to the extent hereinafter provided, which manifests and lists shall be open to the inspection of such immigration officers and to such other persons as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel may be required to furnish a bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the production by the master of such certificates or other documents as may be required by the Secretary of Labor at the time of the vessel's departure from the United States at the next port of call: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section requiring the filing of lists in the case of any vessel engaged in the transportation of passengers solely between ports in the United States.

(a) The lists required by this section shall be in such form and contain such information concerning each alien and each member of the crew sought to be brought within the purview hereof as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer or the first or second officer of the vessel, and delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before any alien shall be allowed to land in the United States. Such officer may, in his discretion, go on board the vessel at quarantine or elsewhere for the purpose of inspecting the lists and the aliens reported thereon before the vessel docks.

(b) Every alien who may be admitted to the United States shall be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of arrival, and the physical and mental condition of each such alien shall be noted by the examining officer. Any alien found to be suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who is found to be mentally defective, or who has been certified by the Public Health Service medical officer at the port of departure or other competent medical officer to be afflicted with a disease which will probably make him become a public charge, or who is found to be a person who has been convicted of or who admits having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who is found to be a polygamist, or who is an anarchist, or who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining such belief or advocating such overthrow, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is an idiot, insane person, epileptic person, or who is afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall be certified by the examining medical officer, and the certificate shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival and a record thereof made in the manifest or list opposite the name of the alien. Any alien certified under this subdivision shall be detained at the port of arrival to await a hearing before a board of special inquiry, unless such alien shall be certified at the discretion of the Secretary of Labor or of the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival to be clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to admission, or unless such alien shall be certified by the Secretary of Labor or the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival to be entitled to admission pending an appeal from the decision of the board of special inquiry. The decision of such board shall be by a majority vote and shall be final unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor shall establish boards of special inquiry consisting of three members each, with such assistants as may be necessary, at such ports of arrival as the number of aliens arriving shall require. Each member of a board of special inquiry shall have authority to administer oaths and to take evidence touching the right of any alien to enter the United States. The chief executive officer of the port of arrival shall be the chairman of the board of special inquiry, and the records and decisions of the board shall be kept by the clerk or other officer detailed by the chairman of the board. The concurring vote of two members of the board shall be necessary to a decision by the board. The chairman of the board shall have power to call for the production of books or papers and to administer oaths in any case coming before the board. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, appoint one or more boards of special inquiry at any port of arrival whenever in his judgment the same may be necessary by reason of the number of aliens arriving thereat.

(c) Any alien who shall come to the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this section, or who shall remain therein for a longer time than that for which he was admitted and allowed to land, shall, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any alien who becomes a public charge within two years after his entry into the United States from causes existing prior to his landing therein shall be deported as provided by this section. Any alien who shall be deported shall be ineligible to subsequently enter the United States, except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor, and may be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at any time within one year after his deportation at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this Act, except as to such as may be admitted on appeal or specially permitted by the Secretary of Labor to enter.

(d) Every alien arriving at a port of the United States from a foreign port or place if found by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival to be an alien seaman shall be deported to the country to which the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived shall be required to pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and the expenses incident to his deportation, unless he shall deposit with the collector of customs at the port of arrival a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his maintenance and deportation as determined by the Secretary of Labor. Such sum shall be refunded to the depositor if the alien is permitted to land temporarily or permanently in the United States or upon his departure from the United States within the period fixed by the Secretary of Labor. Unless a sufficient sum is deposited to cover the cost of maintenance and deportation, the alien may be detained in the custody of the immigration officers until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived has complied with the requirements of this section. Any alien who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port in violation of law may be taken into custody and returned to the vessel on which he arrived or to the vessel on which he may be found, and such vessel shall be required to remove such alien from the United States and pay the cost of his detention and maintenance. Any alien who shall come to the United States from foreign contiguous territory in violation of law may be taken into custody and returned to the foreign contiguous territory from which he came at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien who shall come to the United States from foreign contiguous territory by water without being inspected by the immigration officers at the port of entry or who shall come to the United States from foreign contiguous territory by land at any place other than a designated port of entry shall be taken into custody and returned to the foreign contiguous territory from which he came at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien who shall be deported shall be ineligible to subsequently enter the United States, except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor, and may be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came at any time within one year after his deportation at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this Act, except as to such as may be admitted on appeal or specially permitted by the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall not approve the application of the alien seaman or the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall thereafter bring to such seaman the same or another vessel, he shall cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall be deported shall be ineligible to enter the United States except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor, and may be taken into custody at any time within one year after his deportation and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this Act, except as to such as may be admitted on appeal or specially permitted by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 7. (a) That no alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel when seaman employed on such vessel shall be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), to the end that he may be certified by the Secretary of Labor to be entitled to a landing certificate, or to be specially permitted by such immigration officer to land temporarily, pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor as to his final permanent admission, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10.00 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers before the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who may be found by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived to comply with the provisions of this section requiring the filing of lists in the case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deport such seaman, and such vessel shall be required to remove such alien from the United States and pay the cost of his detention and maintenance. Any alien seaman who shall not be granted clearance papers and who remains and who refuses to accept such clearance papers when granted, and any alien seaman who shall come to the United States from foreign contiguous territory, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in the United States at any time other than that for which he was granted a landing certificate by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall be deported shall be ineligible to enter the United States except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor, and may be taken into custody at any time within one year after his deportation and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this Act, except as to such as may be admitted on appeal or specially permitted by the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall not approve the application of the alien seaman or the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall thereafter bring to such seaman the same or another vessel, he shall cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall be deported shall be ineligible to enter the United States except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor, and may be taken into custody at any time within one year after his deportation and returned to the country whence he came at the cost of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall enter the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this Act, except as to such as may be admitted on appeal or specially permitted by the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members prior to (Form 528) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "MOTAWAY," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the said aliens who are to be landed in the port of arrival; or state contrary to much of such information as may be known to the master to enable such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been being so discharged, and of all alien employees, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid in the manner and within the time prescribed, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which such alien arrived shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the duty of the inspector to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains pending; but shall not be transferred or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines levied by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transferred, and not then unless notice of appeal to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act hereof, and no appeal from the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 38. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deposit on board such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection he is hereby authorized to make), or who fails to detain on board such alien seaman until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the United States on any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any place outside thereof, in case he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector stationed at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crew(s) of alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 28. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there conveniently the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company. When and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and description (name, age, sex, nationality, last permanent residence, calling, and final destination if known) of each alien among them who is to be discharged in the port of arrival; or there conveniently to the principal immigration officer at the port of departure of such alien from the United States.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the list required by section 28 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative have prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 30 of said Act, and no alien seaman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily as bona fide members of the crew of such vessel while it remains there; nor shall such alien be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness which necessitates his removal to a hospital for treatment, or because of the inability of the master to provide for his maintenance, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or other disposition of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who fails to detain on board any alien seaman who has been ordered excluded by such immigration officer at the time of such inspection, or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to report such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question or during the payment of such tax, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination or the deposit to payment of such tax or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or such deposit upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or such deposit upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound vessel of the owner on which he arrived in the United States from such port, or who departs from the United States from any port on a vessel other than that on which he arrived, unless specifically authorized to depart on another vessel by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or by the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence to establish that he has remained in the United States in violation of law.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue delay in the departure of such vessel, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 588) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien shall not be furnished a descriptive list as above, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, and such other lists, respectively, with such additional information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at such time, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has stolen as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at such time, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who neglects to report any such case, or who refuses to furnish the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the said lists or make oath to the correctness thereof, respectively, or in case of any such case of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such alien arriving and departing, respectively, he shall be punished by a fine of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and such person may be prevented from lading or unlading such vessel until the full lists shall have been delivered and reports made, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act of February 5, 1917, has been made.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port or place duriug her present voyage, and that no seamen have been discharged from said vessel except by leave of the proper officer of the port, or for some reason which I have stated in the following list opposite the name of such seaman.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 35, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____
Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the inspection station during the vessel's stay at the port of arrival, but in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens to whom such permit to land has been granted by the Secretary of Labor (see rule 7, form 523) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (form 524).

Sec. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of said aliens, if any, who have been discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been being on such discharged, and the cause of such discharge, so far as known; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if any, who were described or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of departure, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and such vessel may be refused clearance pending the determination of the question of the imposition of the penalty to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been in-dorsed, and not then unless notice of inability to do the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to some other prescribed by section 36 of said Act remain open, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

Sec. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by reason of the act of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer, of bringing him to the United States from any place outside thereof, duly certified by the immigration officer at the port of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and such inspection by an immigrant inspector shall be conclusive upon the question of the right of such alien to land in the United States, unless within five days after such inspection or to do report such seaman it reported by such immigration officer or the alien to land to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Proof shall be on alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to obtain or deport alien seaman, or that he was employed thereon at a time when such vessel was in a condition to proceed to sea, and such fact shall be prima facie evidence that such seaman was employed on board with the consent of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seaman, or that no other vessel is available which will take such seaman to the country to which he has the right to be deported within a reasonable time, and that such seaman is willing and able to depart voluntarily from the United States, and the cost of his maintenance pending such departure will not be unduly great, and that such seaman has not been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude, the Secretary of Labor may cause such seaman to be detained on board or at a station designated by him, and such seaman shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

Sec. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of said aliens, if any, who have been discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been being on such discharged, and the cause of such discharge, so far as known; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if any, who were described or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of departure, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and such vessel may be refused clearance pending the determination of the question of the imposition of the penalty to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according to separate classes within each of the so-called contract class, whose rules apply to the admission of temporary workers, and those whose rules do not. Each manifest should be prepared in duplicate, and passengers should appear upon the same manifest sheet only when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on manifest).—Number the entries in this column consecutively, beginning with 1 in each manifest.

Column 2 (Last name).—Enter surname of alien in full.

Column 3 (Given name).—Enter given name in full.

Column 4 (Age).—Enter the age of the alien at his last birthday. Persons under 1 year of age should be entered as "1 month," "2 months," etc.

Column 5 (Sex).—Enter "M" (male) or "F" (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—Enter "M" (married), "S" (single), "W" (widowed), or "D" (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—Enter the calling or occupation of each alien, as for example: laborer, farmer, merchant, tailor, clerk, etc., but do not simply write "housework" or "none." Persons of no occupation, such as women and children, should be entered as "housework," "none," or "at home," as the case may be. Children going to school should be entered as "student."

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—Enter "Yes" if the alien can read and write some language, and "No" if he cannot. Do not enter "Yes" unless you have ascertained that the alien can read and write. If he can read but not write, enter "Read" or "R"; if he can write but not read, enter "Write" or "W."

Column 9 (Nationality).—Give the country to which the alien owes allegiance, for example: German, Irish, Scottish, Chinese, Mexican, Cuban, Canadian (French), Canadian (other), Turkish, Armenian, Syrian, Greek, Russian, Polish, Finnish, Croatian, Slovak, Dalmatian, Roumanian, Portuguese, English, Scotch, Welsh, Japanese, Hindu, East Indian, Arabian, Egyptian, Mexican, West Indian, Central American, South American, Negro, Other Africans, Other Asiatics.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should show the race or people as given in Col. 9.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country to which the people and nationality should be correctly written. For instance, "French" should not mean "French" by race or people, and similarly "English," "Scotch," "Irish," "German," "Italian," "Spanish," "Portuguese," "Swedish," "Norwegian," "Danish," "Dutch," "Flemish," "Belgian," "Swiss," "Turkish," "Armenian," "Syrian," "Greek," "Russian," "Polish," "Finnish," "Croatian," "Slovak," "Dalmatian," "Roumanian," "Hungarian," "Portuguese," "Spanish," "Mexican," "Cuban," "Canadian," "Central American," "South American," "West Indian," "East Indian," "Japanese," "Chinese," "Korean," "Filipino," "Hawaiian," "Samoan," "Indian," "Negro," "Other Africans," "Other Asiatics," "Arabian," "Egyptian," "Pacific Islander," "Scotch Canadian," "Irish Canadian," "French Canadian," "Acadian," "Jewish," "Gypsy," "Basque," "Celtic," "Manx," "Lapp," "Icelandic," "Australian," "New Zealander," "Tasmanian," "Bohemian," "Moravian," "Carpatho Russian," "Ruthenian," "Bulgarian," "Servian," "Montenegrin," "Albanian," "Greek Cypriote," "Cornish," "Canadian (other)," "Canadian (Province of Quebec)," "Canadian (Province of Nova Scotia)," "Canadian (Province of New Brunswick)," "Canadian (Province of Prince Edward Island)," "Canadian (Province of British Columbia)," "Canadian (Province of Manitoba)," "Canadian (Province of Saskatchewan)," "Canadian (Province of Alberta)," "Canadian (Province of Ontario

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms supplied by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival in the United States from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens mentioned in rule 7 hereof shall not be furnished to the master of the vessel, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. (See 68 Form [illegible] "Steamship Agreement" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee, or charterer of any vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival lists or manifests of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, which lists shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor concerning each alien, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor concerning the right of any alien to enter the United States, and such lists or manifests shall be delivered at the time of the vessel's entry into port: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may by general rules limit the number of aliens concerning whom such information shall be required to be furnished: but no such rules shall require primary lines to furnish information concerning cabin passengers who are not destined to the United States: Provided further, That the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel failing to deliver such lists or manifests, or any person who refuses to answer questions concerning the same, or who shall refuse to permit any immigrant inspector to come aboard such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to land temporarily any alien for further examination, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided further, That the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel bringing an alien who is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, which would be likely to endanger the health of persons other than steerage passengers, shall be required to detain such alien on board such vessel or other place designated by the United States Public Health Service officer until a certificate shall be issued by said officer that such alien may be landed without danger to the public health, and any such alien who shall land in the United States without such certificate may be deported as provided in section 19 hereof: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section as to the detention of aliens who are in transit through the United States to foreign countries, and may make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section.

SEC. 36. (a) The owners, charterers, agents, consignees, or masters of any vessel bringing into the United States any alien, excepting those specifically exempted from the payment of the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the head tax at the time of the vessel's entry into port, and no such alien shall be permitted to land in the United States from any vessel until the head tax has been paid: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to require the payment of the head tax for any alien who shall depart immediately from the vessel at the port of arrival and shall not enter the United States, except that in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to do so the head tax shall be paid before the vessel departs from the port.

(b) Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master failing to pay the head tax as herein provided shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That on such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to and prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and not less than 48 hours have elapsed after delivery of such notice.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless specifically certified by the Secretary of Labor from any prescription for the admissible character, to the satisfaction of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than foreign contiguous territory) who lands or permits to be landed any alien (other than an alien seaman employed on such vessel duly certificated by the Secretary of Labor to do so, and then only by the collector of customs at a port of entry designated by the Secretary of Labor) at any place in the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, or any rule, regulation, or order made pursuant thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the territory of the United States in violation of the provisions of this Act shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that sufficient reimbursement to the immigration officer at the port of arrival has not been made, he shall certify the facts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall withhold clearance of any vessel on which the alien seaman was employed until such reimbursement has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment or because of illness, or injury for which treatment is necessary, or pending the determination of any question as to the right of such seaman to land, or pending his application for a visa and examination by a consular officer, or pending his departure on a vessel or other conveyance within seventy-two hours after his arrival, unless such seaman shall deposit with the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be cleared clearance cannot be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect in any proceeding in which the question may arise.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that adequate deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is detained, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly mailed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly mailed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, whether such fine has been paid or not, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Sec. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly mailed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, whether such fine has been paid or not, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Sec. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly mailed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, whether such fine has been paid or not, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or charterer of the port of arrival, and shall be the duty of the master to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the said aliens who are destined to the United States, the intended destination of each, whether he has a ticket through to such destination, whether his passage has been paid by another person or by the master, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel, and whether he has in his possession or has forwarded or has been supplied with money by any person, and the amount thereof, and from what source it was derived, and whether he intends to return to the country whence he came, and his reasons therefor, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when, where, and how long he resided there, and whether he has any friends or relatives in the United States, and if so, whether they are male or female, their names, relationship, and complete address, and whether he has been connected with any institution or penal institution, and if so, which, and where and when, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so, where and when, and whether he is coming to the United States in pursuance of any previous or existing agreement to perform labor, and if so, what the nature of such agreement is, and whether he intends to apply for assistance on his arrival in the United States, and if so, by what means he intends to support himself, and whether he intends to join any relatives in the United States, and if so, what relatives, and where they are, and whether he has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long he remained, and what his occupation is, and whether he has been deported or excluded from the United States, and if so, why, and whether he has ever been a member of the anarchistic class, or of the class opposed to all organized government, or of the class which believes in the assassination of public officials, or of the class which disbelieves in or is opposed to the practice of polygamy, and whether he is coming in pursuance of a prepaid railroad ticket purchased by another person or persons, and whether he is in possession of a ticket, and if so, whether it is a through ticket, and whether he has been deported at the expense of the United States, and whether he has been assisted by any society or person, and whether he is a stowaway, and whether he is under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and what the consideration for such contract or agreement is, and whether he has ever been in prison or in a poorhouse, and whether he is a polygamist, and whether he is coming to the United States with the intention of returning to his native country after temporarily engaging in remunerative labor, and whether he is an anarchist, and whether he believes in the practicability or desirability of the forcible overthrow of all forms of law, and whether he is a professional beggar, and whether he is coming for a purpose or object promised by any person in the United States, and what the alleged inducement is, and what amount of money he has in his own possession at the time of application for admission, and whether he has a ticket to his final destination, and whether he has been given assistance by any corporation, society, private individual, or charitable institution, and whether he is deaf, dumb, blind, crippled, or otherwise physically defective, and whether he is under sentence of death for a crime or misdemeanor, and whether he has been convicted of such crime or misdemeanor, and whether he is a person who has been deported, and whether he is coming to the United States to perform any specific work, and if so, what the specific work is, and for how long a time, and where he is going, and whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States, and whether he is a person who has been refused admission to the United States at any previous time, and the cause for such refusal, and whether he intends to practice polygamy in the United States, and whether he has come in response to any solicitation, and whether he has a contract or job to perform labor in the United States, and whether he has been employed by any contractor or agent, directly or indirectly, to secure such labor, and whether he has been employed by the Pullman Company or any of its subsidiaries in Canada, and whether he is a member of the Industrial Workers of the World or any organization which teaches the overthrow by force of the Government of the United States, and whether he is a member of any organization which teaches the unlawful destruction of property; and such other questions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. The physical and mental examination of such aliens shall be made by the medical officers of the United States Public Health Service. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section with respect to the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports of the United States, and shall have the power to establish such ports of entry for the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports not designated by the President as ports of entry as he may deem expedient. Any alien who has been excluded from admission to the United States and who has been employed on board any vessel arriving at any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien who has been allowed to enter the United States temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury for which treatment is necessary, or pending the determination of any question as to the right of such alien to land, or pending his application for a visa and examination by a consular officer, or pending his departure on a vessel or other conveyance within seventy-two hours after his arrival, and who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than herein specified, or who shall return to the United States at any time subsequent to the departure of the vessel on which he was employed, or who shall enter the United States at any port other than a port designated by the President as a port of entry for such alien, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country to which he belongs or from which he came, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or charterer who shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of this section with respect to the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports of the United States, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse or fail to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified and has had reasonable opportunity to examine such alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer to the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance cannot be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect in any proceeding in which the question may arise.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that adequate deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is detained, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, whether such fine has been paid or not, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes to alien members to be given (Form 588) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

The physical and mental examination of such aliens shall be made by the medical officers of the United States Public Health Service. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section with respect to the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports of the United States, and shall have the power to establish such ports of entry for the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports not designated by the President as ports of entry as he may deem expedient. Any alien who has been excluded from admission to the United States and who has been employed on board any vessel arriving at any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien who has been allowed to enter the United States temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury for which treatment is necessary, or pending the determination of any question as to the right of such alien to land, or pending his application for a visa and examination by a consular officer, or pending his departure on a vessel or other conveyance within seventy-two hours after his arrival, and who shall remain in the United States for a longer time than herein specified, or who shall return to the United States at any time subsequent to the departure of the vessel on which he was employed, or who shall enter the United States at any port other than a port designated by the President as a port of entry for such alien, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country to which he belongs or from which he came, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the Chinese exclusion laws. Any master, agent, consignee, or charterer who shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of this section with respect to the examination of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at ports of the United States, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse or fail to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival has been notified and has had reasonable opportunity to examine such alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer to the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance cannot be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect in any proceeding in which the question may arise.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that adequate deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is detained, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, whether such fine has been paid or not, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; to list separately those who have been rejected by the consular officers; and to report the sickness or death of any person on board during the voyage, with the cause thereof. The master of any such vessel shall report the name of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether as members of the crew or otherwise, who have been paid off, discharged, or who have deserted or landed; and in case of the illness of any such alien, correct list and account of his effects and money left on board the vessel. Before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each such immigration officer at the port of departure a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival at such port, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to replace those who have been left behind in consequence of illness, injury, or other cause, and the cause of such substitution. Any master, agent, consignee, or master who refuses to deliver to any such immigration officer any information likely to lead to the apprehension and deportation of any alien employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him by such officer touching the matters in respect of which information is required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such refusal occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the port of arrival until the master has complied with the requirements of this section. Any vessel which shall depart from any port of the United States without having complied with the requirements of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien concerning whom such refusal occurs. The Secretary of Labor is authorized to refuse clearance papers to any vessel in which the master refuses to permit the immigration officer to enter the vessel for the purpose of examining the crew, passengers, and cargo, and to refuse clearance papers to any vessel which, after arrival at a port of the United States, shall refuse

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1915, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 35 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival like certificate with respect to each alien seaman on board such vessel, or who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such sum or the filing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such fine may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor, whose decision thereon shall be final, upon the application of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States or upon the application of such alien seaman, but no such fine shall be remitted or mitigated unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the seaman was not employed, landed, or permitted to land in violation of law, and that clearance was granted the vessel by the collector of customs.

(c) Every such fine, or any part thereof, incurred or accrued, shall be a lien upon the vessel in respect to which it was incurred, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for the district in which she may be found by the collector of customs or any officer authorized by him, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, or if she shall depart without such clearance.

(d) Every such fine, or any part thereof, incurred or accrued, shall be a personal debt of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived, and suit for the recovery thereof may be maintained against any one or more of such persons in the district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel may be found or in which the collector of customs shall have his office.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that any deportation of an alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived has been unduly delayed by the refusal of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to furnish information relative to such seaman or such deportation, or has been prevented by reason of the refusal of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to defray the necessary expenses of such deportation, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment thereof to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor guaranteed.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearliest to the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 568) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like certificate and manifest with respect to all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position each alien seaman employed on such vessel shall fill, the name, nationality, last residence, and such other facts regarding each alien seaman as may be required by such immigration officer, or the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner, as the case may be, to report to such immigration officer, at such time or times as may be required by such officer, the name of any alien seaman who shall have been discharged, and the cause and circumstances of his discharge, and the name, nationality, last residence, and such other facts regarding each alien seaman who shall have been shipped or employed on such vessel since the arrival thereof or the last report made as to such matters, and the intended destination of such alien seaman, and to report to such immigration officer, at such time or times as may be required by such officer, the name of any alien seaman who shall have left the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed therein at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and the names of those who have been shipped or discharged; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either of the lists herein required, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the use of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or to whom report is not made as above provided: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest shall contain the names of all persons, including cabin passengers, who shall be landed at the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival; if there be no such officer, then at the office of the customs collector at the port of arrival; or if there be no immigration officer or customs collector at the port, then at such office as the Secretary of Labor may designate. Such list or manifest shall be delivered by the master to the proper officer before the vessel shall be admitted to pratique, and no person shall leave the vessel before the delivery of the list or manifest, except in case of sickness or accident, or by special permission of the immigration officer in charge of the port. When an alien shall be landed at a port for transportation in transit through the United States to a foreign country, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel shall report the fact to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and the alien shall be detained on board the vessel or in such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port, unless sooner landed in the United States in accordance with the provisions of the immigration laws and rules made in pursuance thereof, or deported at the expense of the vessel within the period allowed by the Secretary of Labor and in accordance with his instructions. When any such alien is detained on board the vessel, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel shall furnish such detained alien with proper and sufficient food during the detention on board.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel to report and deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on board the vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are to be landed in the port of arrival; or state conclusively that no such persons are on board. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or additions mentioned in section (698) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival [here continue in much of same form as the manifest].

When an alternate vessel is to proceed to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival [here continue the names of all countries, or insert foreign ports to which vessel is bound, as also the regulations as to the procedure to be followed at the port of arrival; or state concisely in what respects the vessel will depart from the regulations governing the same].

Sec. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee, or person in charge of the port of arrival [here continue the names of all persons employed on board the vessel, specifying the positions such respectively hold in the cabin compan, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those so be held on board at the port of arrival; or state concisely in much of same information as may be required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival], to report to such immigration officer in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has concealed himself or herself on board, and to deliver to such immigration officer a manifest [here continue the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind, and the reasons therefor; and of all persons, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the illness of such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to delay final sailing of the vessel, a certificate from a surgeon of the United States service, if such can be obtained without unreasonable delay, stating the fact and cause of such illness and delay, and the probable length of detention required; and if any such deserting alien concealed himself on board, the name of the master, agent, owner, or consignee who shall fail to report such fact to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concealed whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, the master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concealed whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the determination of the question or questions involved in such report shall have been certified to the Secretary of Labor, and then only in accordance with his decision thereon: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or such part thereof as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Clearance shall not be granted under the provisions of this section to any vessel until the master thereof has delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge a list containing the name of every alien who has been a stowaway on board such vessel, the facts and circumstances in connection with the stowaway so far as known to the master, and the final disposition made of such stowaway. Any master who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board the vessel arriving in the United States from some place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical examination, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except from foreign contiguous territory, who employs on board such vessel any alien seaman who has been certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be the cause of the exclusion of such alien seaman from the United States, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question or questions involved in such report if the immigration officer in charge has reason to believe that such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor so to do, and then to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question or questions involved in such report if the immigration officer in charge has reason to believe that such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor so to do, and then to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or the landing of such

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the persons so listed as shall be the duty of the master to land in the port of arrival; to list separately such of the persons so listed as shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at which port the vessel shall be first admitted to entry, as are known as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel at which the port of arrival is located the master shall deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who subsequently joined from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and such immigration officer shall have the right to question the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel if dissatisfied with the correctness of the lists presented, and also the manifest of cargo, and may order and secure the detention of any such person until a thorough inspection and examination can be had, and may administer oaths and examine witnesses touching the matters under investigation. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who refuses to deliver lists as required by this section, or who refuses to answer questions, or who makes false answers thereto, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each offense, for which sum the vessel shall be liable, and such penalty may be sued for and recovered by the United States or by any person who shall first bring action therefor, including any such master, agent, consignee, or owner who may be first to report the violation of this section: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit or mitigate any penalty provided for in this section or discontinue any prosecution for the recovery thereof on such terms as he may deem just and reasonable under the circumstances of the case.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of the United States, except a sea-going vessel plying regularly between the United States and Canada, Mexico, Newfoundland, the West Indies, Panama, or Cuba, which has been inspected under the provisions of section 4 of the Act of March 4, 1915, entitled "An Act to promote the welfare of American seamen in the merchant marine of the United States; to abolish arrest and imprisonment as a penalty in connection therewith, except in certain cases; to regulate the carriage of seamen; to provide for the health and comfort of seamen while on board vessels; to provide for the better protection of seamen; to promote the welfare of American seamen in the merchant marine of the United States; to provide for the examination and certification of officers of vessels; to promote the welfare of American seamen in foreign countries; to provide for the relief and protection of American seamen in foreign countries; to provide for the punishment of crimes committed on the high seas by persons on board merchant vessels of the United States; and to carry into effect the International Conventions concerning the Safety of Life at Sea and Load Lines," and which has been certificated by the Secretary of Commerce as complying with the provisions of said Act, shall not be required to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act upon any alien seaman employed on board such vessel while in the regular service of such vessel between ports of the United States and foreign ports, or between ports of the United States, unless such alien seaman intends to abandon his employment on board such vessel in the United States and actually does so abandon the same, or unless such alien seaman is employed on board such vessel at any port or place in the United States for a period longer than seventy-two hours.

(b) Any such alien seaman who has been granted shore leave while such vessel is in port in the United States, and who overstays such shore leave, shall be deemed to have abandoned his employment on board such vessel, and the master of such vessel shall be liable to the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act upon the employment of such alien seaman, unless such alien seaman shall have been detained in the United States against his will, or shall have left the United States with the consent of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

(c) Any such alien seaman who shall desert from any such vessel while in port in the United States shall be deemed to have abandoned his employment on board such vessel, and the master of such vessel shall be liable to the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act upon the employment of such alien seaman, unless such alien seaman shall have been detained in the United States against his will, or shall have left the United States with the consent of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

(d) Any such alien seaman who shall be employed on board any vessel while in port in the United States, and who shall not have been granted shore leave, shall be deemed to have abandoned his employment on board such vessel in the United States, unless such alien seaman shall have been detained in the United States against his will, or shall have left the United States with the consent of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

(e) The tax imposed by section 2 of this Act shall be paid to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located for the use of the United States at the rate of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of such tax, and in the event such tax is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted upon vessel until the liens created by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative tax prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains unpaid, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless the Secretary of Labor has prescribed for the alternate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board thereof any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall upon the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival have inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of the tax or the deposit of such sum as the Secretary of Labor may require as to such alien seaman unless the master of such vessel produces to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the payment of the tax or the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or unless the Secretary of Labor shall not have approved the collector's action.

(d) Every alien seaman who has been granted shore leave on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who has been refused by the master a permit, shall be given such a hearing by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived was caused by the failure of the master to comply with the provisions of this section, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearliest the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be later than the vessel. The list of changes of alien members or crews (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "watchman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

I, ... of the Ship ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place arriving per present voyage. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been intended, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 36 of said Act unless such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all persons on board, specifying those to be landed at that port, and those destined to some other port in the United States, and the intended destination of each alien. Such list shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer, or the first or second officer, and shall be in such form and contain such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master, commanding officer, or agent of any such vessel shall also deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a like list of all aliens on board, specifying those to be admitted in the United States, those to be admitted in transit through the United States to foreign countries, and those not entitled to admission, specifying the reasons for the belief that each alien belongs to the class excluded from admission. Such additional information in respect to each such alien as may be required by such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe shall be furnished before the vessel shall be granted clearance by the customs officer, or in case of vessels not requiring clearance before the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Any master, commanding officer, or agent of any vessel who refuses or fails to deliver such list, or who refuses to furnish such additional information required within the time prescribed, or who presents a false list wilfully omitting therefrom the name of any alien employed on such vessel who shall have been employed thereon at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port of arrival, or who shall have been employed on board such vessel at any time during the period between the departure from the last foreign port or place and the departure from the port of arrival of any alien not included in such list, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector any such list, or who refuses to furnish any additional information required as herein provided, or who presents or delivers any such list containing statements known by him to be false in any particular, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the secretary of labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall not include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the secretary of labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the time remains pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien seaman pursuant to the immigration officer or the secretary of labor.

(c) If the secretary of labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the treatment authorized to the seaman on board such vessel, or to do so would be contrary to the interests of the United States, he may permit such alien seaman to land temporarily, under such conditions as he may prescribe, without the payment of the sum or the deposit of the bond required in this section, but such seaman shall be deported on another vessel as the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the secretary of labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Ephraim Tyler Bronson, of the 42 Grand Key Line, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port or place sailed for present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 58, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Ephraim Tyler Bronson
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this 12 day of June, 1924

Olin Franklin Kelly
Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crew (Form 583) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an alien "seaman" is discharged, the master will note the fact on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there containing the names of all members of the crew employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who do or do not intend to depart in the port of arrival; to make corrections as much of such information as may be necessary to secure the same to be correct and true to the best of his knowledge and belief; and to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which the crew of such vessel is reduced in number, and the cause or reason therefor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of a vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or to make any report required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him by such officer touching the matters in relation to which information is required by this section, or who shall make any false answer to any such question, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the application to permit of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereafter approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be filed showing the nationality of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rescued by the master of such vessel as a seafarer, shall be prima facie evidence of a sufficient reason to detain or deport alien from the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman because of relationship by the immigration officer, such alien may be granted a temporary permit to land, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fund prescribed by said section or to land prescribed by section 35 of said act hereof has been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or departure of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside foreign, shall be responsible for the payment of the hospital dues and other charges in connection with the medical examination of all alien seamen employed on such vessel duly made by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and the subsistence of such alien seamen on board while such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or if required by such immigration officer to detain such alien, to be deported on analysis thereof as the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall constitute a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in rem, and clearance may be withheld or refused: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and in all instances before taking from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members after the vessel (from 682 forms) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like manifests of all the persons on board such vessel, showing the full name, calling, last residence, whether married or single, nationality, and final destination of every such person who is not a bona fide resident of the United States, Panama, Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Virgin Islands, or Philippine Islands, and a true statement of the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each; which manifests shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be admitted to entry, and shall be subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such manifests shall be prepared in such form and contain such other information concerning each alien, or the baggage belonging to such alien, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel. Any master or commanding officer who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such manifests, or to answer truly and completely such questions as may be put to him touching the same, or to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the time of inspection all the aliens on board his vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct data are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the right of the master to the remission of the fine upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted vessel until the data required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been tendered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act of May 26, 1924, has been served, the deposit specified in rule 25 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws who employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum detention, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer to the extent of the penalties provided in section 16 of this Act, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the outboard limitations of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act, or who shall not be a bona fide resident seaman to whom such limitations do not apply, shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and pending such deportation shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port. Such detention on board shall not exceed ten days unless the vessel on which such alien arrived is unable to depart from the port within such period, in which case such detention may continue until the departure of such vessel. Any such alien seaman who shall land in violation of this Act shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act or any amendment thereto, or who shall remain therein for a period longer than sixty days after his lawful permission to land shall have expired, shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of this Act.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is unable to depart from the port within such period, may cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list to changes to mean the port. When no alien is carried a manifest (Form 583) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board the vessel such inspection to all crews shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), to or who fails to detain such seamen on board the vessel such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be taken as to the seamen who may appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel or which be arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be brought before a special inquiry officer for examination, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seamen on board the vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such seamen on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States unless such seamen be lawfully entitled to enter the United States, or unless the master shall establish by the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that such deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall grant deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived or on any vessel sailing under the same ownership, management, or control, or to the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or to any vessel sailing under the same ownership, management, or control, or to any vessel in which the owners, agents, consignees, or charterers of the vessel on which he arrived are interested, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master, charterer, or agent of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien immigrant, or the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names in full and such information concerning each alien immigrant as is required to be set forth in the manifest of alien passengers and members of crews required to be delivered by the master of vessels to the immigration officers at the ports of arrival, and such additional information concerning them as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such immigration officer shall have the right to question any such alien immigrant in relation to his admissibility, and to examine his baggage and effects for the purpose of ascertaining whether he is in possession of money, and the amount thereof, and whether he belongs to any of the classes excluded by law from admission into the United States, and such other questions as may be prescribed by rules made in pursuance thereof, and such immigration officer shall have power to administer oaths and to take and consider evidence touching the right of any such alien immigrant to enter the United States, and all such questions shall be answered by such alien immigrant under oath; and any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who shall refuse to deliver such lists, or who shall refuse to answer any such questions, or who shall refuse to detain any such alien immigrant on board or at such port of arrival when required so to do by such immigration officer, or who shall refuse to deport any such alien immigrant when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax levied by this Act for each such alien immigrant, or who shall refuse to prosecute any such application for a writ of certiorari to review such order, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and such fine shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which the vessel may arrive during the pendency of such proceedings or while it remains unpaid; but such fine shall not be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring such treatment, or for the purpose of obtaining treatment for such illness, or injury from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), to or who fails to detain such seamen on board the vessel such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be taken as to the seamen who may appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel or which be arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be brought before a special inquiry officer for examination, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain such seamen on board the vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such seamen on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States unless such seamen be lawfully entitled to enter the United States, or unless the master shall establish by the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that such deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman or cause him to be detained on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall grant deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived or on any vessel sailing under the same ownership, management, or control, or to the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or to any vessel in which the owners, agents, consignees, or charterers of the vessel on which he arrived are interested, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel in the presence of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival there conspicuously the names of all the persons on board the vessel, and specifying those who were respectively born in the alien countries, and those who were respectively citizens of the United States, and the immigrant inspector shall in the alien's presence compare the names so entered with the list of aliens employed on such vessel, examine the passports and other documents of such aliens, and interrogate them as to the purpose and length of their intended stay in the United States, and whether they have been convicted of certain crimes or misdemeanors, and shall enter on the list, opposite the name of each alien, such information as he may obtain in relation to his admission or right to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of certain physical defects, certified by the medical examiners, and shall indicate on the list the names of those aliens who are to be detained on board the vessel, and those who are to be taken before the immigration officer in charge at the port for examination. The immigrant inspector shall also enter on the list the names of all aliens employed on such vessel during her stay in port, and shall not permit any alien to land from any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place at any time unless and until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall have delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest containing a correct record of information required by this section as to each alien employed on board such vessel, and the immigrant inspector shall have certified on such list or manifest his approval of the landing of such alien, and no such alien shall land in the United States except as provided in this section. Upon the completion of the unloading of the vessel, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge thereof shall deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port a list or manifest certified by him containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel during her stay in port who have been discharged from such vessel before departure from the United States, and the names of any such aliens who have died during such period of employment, and the immigrant inspector shall have the right to board any vessel at any time before departure from the United States for the purpose of examining the list or manifest of alien members of the crew authorized by this section to be made, and to take such other steps as he may deem necessary to prevent violations of the provisions of this section. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver the list or manifest provided for in this section, or who refuses to the immigrant inspector the right to board the vessel for the purpose of examining the list or manifest, or who refuses to detain on board any alien ordered detained by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port, or who lands or permits to land any alien employed on such vessel contrary to the provisions of this section, or who refuses or neglects to indorse the certificate of the immigrant inspector on the list or manifest of each alien employed on such vessel who is discharged or who dies during the period of employment, or who refuses or neglects to perform any other requirement of this section or of any rule or regulation made thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom any violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of such sum as a bond sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front sides of aliens seamen did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, it shall be the duty of the master of such vessel to report the names of such aliens to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and to give information as to the cause of their departure from the vessel. If any such alien seaman shall desert while in the United States, it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived to report the name of such alien seaman, the cause of his departure, and the date thereof to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure, and to deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of departure is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct data are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act, if any, have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 25 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel's manifest. The list of aliens mentioned in the (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien employed on board vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place is about to leave the vessel for medical treatment, or because of illness or injury requiring his removal to a hospital, the master shall notify the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure, and such alien shall not be allowed to depart from the United States unless specially certified by the medical officer of the immigration service at the port of departure as not affected with any contagious disease.

SEC. 18. (a) That no master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and no person in charge of any railroad car entering the United States from any place outside thereof, shall knowingly bring to the United States any alien not duly certified by the proper consular officer at the port or place of departure to be admissible to the United States under the immigration laws and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the admission of aliens coming to the United States from countries adjacent thereto, or from islands adjacent to the United States, except temporary visitors for pleasure or business, or aliens in transit through the United States, and no master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall bring to the United States any alien employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and no alien employed on board vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall be allowed to land in the United States from such vessel until such alien shall have been duly certified by the immigration officer at the port of arrival as admissible under the immigration laws and regulations, and no such alien shall be allowed to land in the United States from such vessel except at the port specified in the certificate issued by the immigration officer at the port of arrival: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of this section to aliens employed on vessels touching at ports of the United States on the Great Lakes which do not touch at ports outside thereof, and to aliens employed on vessels plying between the United States and the West Indies, Mexico, Central America, Newfoundland, or Canada: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of this section to aliens employed on vessels touching at ports of the United States on the Pacific Coast which do not touch at ports outside thereof, and to aliens employed on vessels plying between the United States and Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Philippine Islands: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the application of this section to aliens employed on vessels touching at ports of the United States on the Atlantic Coast which do not touch at ports outside thereof, and to aliens employed on vessels plying between the United States and the Panama Canal Zone.

SEC. 19. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and any person in charge of any railroad car entering the United States from any place outside thereof, who shall fail to detain on board the vessel or railroad car any alien employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who shall fail to detain such alien on board after such inspection or to deport such alien if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, or shall fail to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien detained in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of such security as may be required by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien detained did not appear upon the exclusion warrant of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien deserter by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien detained on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such vessel may be granted clearance limit such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien members of the crew and all passengers who are to be landed in the United States, which lists shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel is granted entry, and the immigration officer at such port shall have the right to go on board any vessel at such time before the departure of the vessel from such port as he may deem necessary for the purpose of examining the persons on board, and to take such testimony under oath touching the right of any alien to enter the United States as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and as may be administered by any immigrant inspector. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, or refuses to subscribe to the oath prescribed, or refuses to answer truthfully questions propounded to him by the immigration officer, or refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when directed so to do by such immigration officer, or refuses to permit any such officer to enter such vessel for the purpose of examining persons on board, or refuses to carry back to the last port from which such vessel came any alien ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, or refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien as to whom such violation occurs. Before any vessel shall be granted clearance the master thereof shall deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to pay the head tax and expenses of the care and maintenance while on board vessel of any alien who may be detained by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and the cost of the return of such alien, unless the master shall obtain a clearance in the manner provided in section 32 of this Act. Upon the refusal of the master to pay such charges and expenses the same shall be recovered in an action of debt in the name of the United States. The Secretary of Labor may issue a certificate in lieu of clearance in the case of any vessel which shall be detained for examination or other cause, and such certificate shall be delivered to the master upon the payment of the charges and expenses aforesaid, or upon the execution of a bond to the United States sufficient in amount to cover the charges and expenses aforesaid, and in cases where head taxes are collected at the time of arrival of vessels the Secretary of Labor may issue certificates in lieu of clearance for the payment of head taxes.

SEC. 31. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board the vessel prior to departure therefrom a complete list of all persons on board such vessel, including the crew, in the manner and form required by the Secretary of Labor, or who fails to deliver on board any such vessel the immigration officer at the port of arrival a sufficient number of lists, or who fails to deliver on board such vessel at the time of departure therefrom a complete list containing the names of all persons who have been taken on board after the list shall have been delivered as required, or who fails to report the illness or death of any person on board such vessel, or who fails to deliver to any such immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of such vessel any person who has been ordered excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under the provisions of section 30 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien as to whom such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) The master, agent, owner, charterer, or consignee of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who has charge of the manifest of any such vessel, who refuses to deliver to any immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival the manifest of such vessel, or who fails to produce any alien member of the crew or any passenger who is to be landed in the United States for examination, or who refuses to permit any such immigrant inspector to enter such vessel for the purpose of examining the manifest, or who refuses to answer truthfully questions propounded to him by such immigrant inspector concerning any alien who is to be landed in the United States, or who refuses to detain any such alien on board such vessel when directed so to do by such immigrant inspector, or who refuses to deliver to any such alien who is to be landed in the United States a certificate from a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or other authorized officer, as to the mental and physical condition of such alien, or who refuses to deliver to any such alien who is to be landed in the United States a landing certificate or permit, or other document required by the regulations of the Secretary of Labor to be delivered to such alien, or who refuses to detain any such alien on board such vessel when directed so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses to carry back to the last port from which such vessel came any alien ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien as to whom such violation occurs.

SEC. 32. (a) Any person, company, partnership, or corporation bringing an alien to any port of the United States shall be required to take back to the port, foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent island from which such alien came, or to any other foreign port to which the alien may be admissible, at the option of the master of the vessel, aircraft, or other conveyance in which such alien arrived, any alien who may be excluded from admission to the United States under the provisions of this Act, or any alien who may be deported under the provisions of this Act, unless such alien is admitted to some other country than the country from which he came, or is admitted to the United States, or is entitled to enter the United States without a visa, or is a member of the crew of a vessel which is to depart within twenty-four hours of the time of the arrival of such alien, or is a member of the crew of a vessel which is to depart within twenty-four hours of the time of the arrival of such alien and which vessel is to depart from a port to which such alien is admissible, or is a member of the crew of a vessel which is to depart from a port to which such alien is admissible

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department, and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and no alien shall be landed, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port (Form 598) and be retained on board, but shall be landed on an inspection pe[rmit] from the vessel. The list of changes to [be] made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee, or person in charge of the port of arrival, [to] file with the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a manifest containing the names of all aliens [em]barked at any foreign port or place for any port or place in the United States, whether destined to the port of arrival or to some other port or place in the United States, and shall report the presence on board of any alien stowaways not mentioned in the manifest, and shall report the name of each alien who may become ill during the voyage and before the vessel reaches port, and shall report the cause of illness, and shall report the name of each alien who may die during the voyage and before the vessel reaches port, and shall report the cause of death, and shall deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed by the master, officers, crew, cooks, stewards, and other persons employed or engaged on board the vessel, which list shall be subject to the inspection of any immigrant inspector, and shall furnish such other information in regard to the history, nationality, and destination of such aliens as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Secretary of Labor, or the boards of special inquiry hereinafter provided for. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses to deliver such list, or who refuses to furnish such information, or to answer such questions, or who makes any false statement in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Upon the refusal of any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel to deliver such list, or to furnish the information required concerning any alien on board, or upon the refusal of any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel to pay the head tax levied by this act against any alien on board such vessel, such vessel shall be required to give a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment of such head tax before a clearance will be granted to such vessel by the collector of customs. (a) If any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel shall refuse to deliver to the immigrant inspectors any list required by this section, or shall refuse to answer any question concerning any alien on board such vessel, or shall refuse to pay the head tax levied by this act against any alien on board such vessel, such vessel shall be required to give a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment of such head tax before a clearance will be granted to such vessel by the collector of customs. (b) Every alien arriving at a seaport of the United States from any foreign port or place, whether entering the United States for the purpose of residence or temporarily, shall be examined by the immigrant inspectors to determine whether he belongs to any of the classes excluded by law. Such examination shall be made in the case of aliens who arrive at ports regularly designated by the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Secretary of Labor, or such other persons as may be charged by law with the execution of the immigration laws, as soon after the vessel has been docked as practicable; except that in the case of aliens who arrive at ports not regularly designated, the examination shall be made at such place as the Commissioner General of Immigration may direct. (c) If the Secretary of Labor shall not have arrived at the port of arrival before the departure therefrom of any vessel having on board any alien who is subject to special inquiry under the provisions of this act, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall detain such alien on board the vessel, and shall report the name and the cause for detention of such alien to the Secretary of Labor, and shall not land such alien except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, and shall pay the cost of such detention and of the return of such alien, unless such alien shall be admitted or landed within five days after report is received by the Secretary of Labor. (d) Every alien who may be refused permission to land shall be returned on the vessel on which he arrived to the port from which he came, or to the country where he boarded such vessel, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his return shall be borne by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States. (e) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that any vessel has been improperly detained by the immigration officers or the Secretary of Labor, such vessel may be granted clearance upon the filing of a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and shall not then be granted unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 38 of the Act, or that prescribed by section 32 of said act, shall have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 21. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or engaged to depart from the United States for any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness, accident, or other cause or circumstance beyond his control, during the period the vessel remains in port, but shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, pending the final determination of such alien's right to land under the provisions of this act, and may be required to depart on any vessel or aircraft on which he may be found. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port or place other than the port or place at which he is authorized by the immigration officer in charge to land, or who shall leave the United States, except as a passenger, or who shall secure or attempt to secure a clearance or the equivalent thereof, or who shall refuse to depart on the vessel or aircraft on which he arrived when ordered to do so by the Secretary of Labor or any immigration officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability of the master, agent, owner, or consignee thereof to any fine or penalty imposed by this section, or while any such fine or penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or penalty with the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman shall be deported who appears upon the subsequent manifest of the vessel or aircraft on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place during the period the vessel remains in port, or who is found on board any vessel in the United States, or who is found in the United States, and who at any time within five years after his entry into the United States is certified by the Secretary of Labor to the Secretary of State as having been a member of the crew of a vessel or aircraft which arrived in the United States, and who shall have remained in the United States for a period of more than sixty days after the departure of the vessel or aircraft on which he arrived, or who shall have been found practicing any of the prohibited acts set forth in section 19 of this act, or who shall have been found to be a member of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by the immigration laws, except that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any alien seaman who is in possession of a valid passport and a valid seaman's certificate or other document in lieu thereof issued by the country to which he belongs, and who is in good health and able to perform his duties, and who is coming to the United States temporarily and solely in pursuit of his calling as a seaman, and who intends to depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel within the period of his authorized stay, or who is in transit through the United States to join a vessel in foreign trade, or who is destined to a foreign country other than the country in which he was born, or who is a bona fide resident of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and is seeking to enter the United States solely in pursuit of his calling as a seaman, and who intends to depart within a reasonable time on a vessel bound for a port in the country in which he resides, or for a port in Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Central or South America, or adjacent islands, and who is in possession of a valid passport and a valid seaman's certificate or other document in lieu thereof, if such country grants a similar privilege to seamen who are citizens of the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the deportation of any alien seaman who has served on board a vessel during the war with Germany and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, if he finds that such alien seaman was forced to leave his vessel because of illness requiring hospital treatment, and that such illness was not the result of his own negligence or misconduct, and that such alien seaman is not likely to become a public charge.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall not have arrived at the port of arrival before the departure therefrom of any vessel having on board any alien who is subject to special inquiry under the provisions of this act, the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall detain such alien on board the vessel, and shall report the name and the cause for detention of such alien to the Secretary of Labor, and shall not land such alien except upon the written permission of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, and shall pay the cost of such detention and of the return of such alien, unless such alien shall be admitted or landed within five days after report is received by the Secretary of Labor. (d) Every alien who may be refused permission to land shall be returned on the vessel on which he arrived to the port from which he came, or to the country where he boarded such vessel, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his return shall be borne by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States. (e) If the Secretary of Labor shall think that any vessel has been improperly detained by the immigration officers or the Secretary of Labor, such vessel may be granted clearance upon the filing of a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 31. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board the vessel arriving in the United States from place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum deposit, to secure the cost of maintenance, and subsistence pending the determination of the question of such alien seaman's right to land in the port, or pending such passage to the country from which he came to the port of arrival or to such other country as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or pending such other disposition of such alien seaman as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 32. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from true place outside thereof who shall land or permit to be landed any alien seaman employed on such vessel (other than a citizen of the United States), at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (who inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to report such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who fails to detain such seaman on board until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has boarded such vessel, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing steamship of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who departs without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port, or who fails to report to the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing steamship of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who departs without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port, or who fails to report to the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(f) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing steamship of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who departs without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port, or who fails to report to the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(h) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(i) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing steamship of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who departs without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port, or who fails to report to the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect as to such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board a vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unavoidable detention, or because of such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or permits to be landed on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival last inspected such seaman (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $17,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or the approval by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the onboard manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a judge or commissioner of the district court of the United States, or to the Secretary of Labor or any person designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose, that such alien has deserted.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, by reason of such desertion, is impracticable or inadvisable, or that such deportation would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fine required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fully collected, but not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act remain open unpaid, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when they were they were respectively born, the last foreign port at which they severally received their certificates of discharge, and the intended final port of discharge; and no such master shall land or permit to be landed any person from such vessel until the said lists shall have been delivered as aforesaid and the consent in writing of such immigration officer obtained. Such lists shall be prepared in such manner and contain such further particulars concerning each person therein named as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and where the master of any such vessel is ignorant or unable to furnish any information required concerning any person employed on such vessel, or where such information appears to be incorrect or insufficient, such master shall make due inquiry of the crew and other persons on board such vessel, and report the result of such inquiry to such immigration officer. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or to make due inquiry, or to report the result thereof, as aforesaid, or who shall land or permit to be landed any person before the delivery of such lists and obtaining the consent in writing of such immigration officer, or who shall refuse to such immigration officer or to any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor to examine such lists, or to such medical officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who will leave the thereon at the time of the next departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind by reason of illness or injury, or who have been discharged, and the reasons for such discharge, and the number, sex, and occupation of such of those specified as are aliens, and the intended final destination of each of them, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, for any cause a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members and of crews (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an entry appears "NONE," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Recording or separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: but one or more manifests should be prepared for the first class and for so-called contract class, whose ports of debarkation may be different. Aliens in transit through the United States without visas should be entered on the manifest of the vessel on which they expect to depart from the United States. The names of all members of a family should appear in the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: but if they travel in different classes, appropriate separate manifests should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Head-tax status).—Accountant will enter alien's status in this column. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 2 (Visa).—The number of the visa of the alien as entered in his passport.

Column 3 (Name in full).—Enter surname (family name) and given names in full. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Prof., Hon., Baron, Baroness, Count, Countess, Lord, Lady, Sir, Dame, should be omitted. Initials should not be used unless they appear on the passport.

Column 4 (Relationship).—Give relationship, if any, to person named immediately preceding, such as husband, wife, child, father, mother, brother, sister, etc.

Column 5 (Age).—Enter age at last birthday.

Column 6 (Sex).—Enter "M" (male) or "F" (female).

Column 7 (Married or single).—Enter "M" (married), "S" (single), "Wd." (widow), or "D" (divorced).

Column 8 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession to which each alien intends to devote himself in the United States, as for example: Civil engineer, mechanical engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, farmer, farm laborer, steel worker, tinner, coal miner, boot maker, etc., and not such indefinite designations as laborer, worker, student, or other indefinite terms.

A distinction should be made between garment and men's tailor, as the latter is a skilled occupation, while the former is not.

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works a farm for the man who employs him.

Seamanship comprises such duties aids distinction of the immigrant, and corresponding to those of able seaman, if necessary, in the judgment of the immigrant inspector.

A fireman is one who tends a furnace.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Give nationality of each alien as to country of which citizen or subject. If citizen of Canada, Newfoundland, or Mexico, state whether native or naturalized.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should show the race or people to which he may belong.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject. Citizens of Italy, for instance, belong to the Latin race, while natives of Ireland, Scotland, and Wales belong to the Celtic race, and natives of England to the Anglo-Saxon race. Natives of Germany are usually of the Teutonic race, but natives of Austria-Hungary may belong to the Slavonic, Teutonic, Magyar, Latin, Jewish, or Gypsy race. Natives of Canada may belong to the Anglo-Saxon, French, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, Hebrew, Indian, Negro, Mongolian, or Japanese race. Natives of Mexico may belong to the Spanish, Indian, Negro, Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Cuba may belong to the Spanish, Negro, Chinese, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Porto Rico may belong to the Spanish, Negro, Chinese, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Central and South America may belong to the Spanish, Indian, Negro, Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Asia may belong to the Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Africa may belong to the Negro, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Australia may belong to the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Europe may belong to the Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Turkey may belong to the Turkish, Armenian, Greek, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Arabia may belong to the Arabian, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Africa may belong to the Negro, Hebrew, Celtic, Teutonic, Scandinavian, or Latin race. Natives of Asia may belong to the Mongolian, Japanese, Chinese

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck, or other casualty, or for such time as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been notified and has had reasonable opportunity to examine such seaman on board after such notification or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer to the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination on such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a member, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States has deserted or intends to desert after temporarily by the master of such vessel as a member, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a member, shall be prima facie evidence to a similar effect by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

TAX. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines credited by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act hereof, has been entered. Clearance may be granted upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or changes to such memoranda shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of view (Form 528) "NOTWAY" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens in any manner of steerage (Form 598) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving alien is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if a hold be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like countings the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and wherever those so be held be discharged in the port of arrival or their continuance on board of such information as the secretary of labor shall by regulation prescribe, and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of the arrival and sailing from the port of such vessel a list of all aliens employed on board such vessel in the capacity of cooks or stewards or other positions connected with the service of such vessel, and all aliens who have been discharged from such vessel since the last previous report was rendered, and the cause for such discharge, so far as known or can be ascertained by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof, and shall furnish such other information in regard to the history, nationality, and right to admission of such aliens as may be required by such immigration officer. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect to whom such default occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of any fine imposed under the provisions of this section, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance in ballast or otherwise within twenty-four hours after the report and manifest of the cargo shall have been completed unless specially authorized by the collector of customs in writing. Any such vessel may be granted clearance upon depositing with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to pay the fines which may be imposed under the provisions of this section, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place who is excluded from admission by the immigration laws or by the regulations thereunder, or by any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made, shall be detained upon the vessel or at the port of arrival, and shall be examined only upon the certificate of the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service that he has a contagious disease which would endanger the public health, or upon the certificate of a special inquiry officer that he belongs to one of the classes excluded by law, and shall not be allowed to land in the United States from any vessel or other vehicle of transportation, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pending the inquiry of a special inquiry officer, or pending an appeal from the decision of a special inquiry officer, or pending the action of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien arriving on the vessel or arriving upon any other vessel at any port in the United States would cause undue hardship to such alien, owing to the existence of any contagious disease which was not discovered prior to the departure of the vessel from the foreign port, he may cause such alien to be detained on board or at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived or on any other vessel in which he may be carried, pending the action of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, masters, officers, and crews who shall violate, or fail to comply with, any of the provisions of said section prior to the date of such repeal.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 8

SEC. 8. (a) . . . The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from the United States for any place outside thereof, or any person in charge of any such vessel, shall be responsible for the payment of the head tax imposed by section 2 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, and for the proper administration of the provisions relating to the collection and return of such tax, and shall not allow any alien passenger to land in the United States before the payment of the tax has been made or the master has been authorized by the collector of customs to permit such landing. Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who shall refuse or neglect to pay the head tax imposed by section 2 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, shall be liable to a penalty of $250 for each alien with respect to whom such refusal or neglect occurs, and no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such penalty or while such penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place who is excluded from admission by the immigration laws or by the regulations thereunder, or by any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made, shall be detained upon the vessel or at the port of arrival, and shall be examined only upon the certificate of a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service that he has a contagious disease which would endanger the public health, or upon the certificate of a special inquiry officer that he belongs to one of the classes excluded by law, and shall not be allowed to land in the United States from any vessel or other vehicle of transportation, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pending the inquiry of a special inquiry officer, or pending an appeal from the decision of a special inquiry officer, or pending the action of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien arriving on the vessel or arriving upon any other vessel at any port in the United States would cause undue hardship to such alien, owing to the existence of any contagious disease which was not discovered prior to the departure of the vessel from the foreign port, he may cause such alien to be detained on board or at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived or on any other vessel in which he may be carried, pending the action of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, masters, officers, and crews who shall violate, or fail to comply with, any of the provisions of said section prior to the date of such repeal.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 8

SEC. 8. (a) . . . No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and citizenship on board any vessel arriving in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital detention, or pending the determination of the question of the right of such alien to land, or pending the removal, transportation, or other disposition of such alien seaman as may be required by the immigration officers in charge of the port, or by the Secretary of Labor, or by any court, justice, or judge of the United States. Any alien seaman who lands in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who departs from the United States for any place outside thereof, or any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel, who violates any of the provisions of this section, shall be severally liable to a penalty of $500 for each such violation, and such penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which the vessel may be found. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the said penalty has been imposed, and not then unless, pending the determination of the liability to the payment thereof, a sum sufficient to cover the same, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs, shall be deposited, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, masters, officers, and crews who shall violate, or fail to comply with, any of the provisions of said section prior to the date of such repeal.

(b) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees, masters, officers, and crews who shall violate, or fail to comply with, any of the provisions of said section prior to the date of such repeal.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from a place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of some emergencies as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board the vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel duly the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival any inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of departure of the vessel from the United States, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be filed as to each seaman who may appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a liability to deport under this subdivision, and such vessel may be refused clearance pending the determination of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possible the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens required to be prepared by section 12 of the act of February 20, 1907 (Form 598), shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the crew and where they were respectively born, and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and specifying those so to be held on board discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens, or no lists if there be no such aliens employed on such vessel, which lists shall be delivered before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector or other officer of the customs. Any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or who shall knowingly and willfully report falsely or make any false statement in any such list as to the true name, nature, or place of birth of any alien employed on board such vessel, or shall refuse to disclose to any immigration officer any information within his knowledge in regard to any such alien, or who shall conceal, harbor, or protect, or assist in concealing, harboring, or protecting any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition thereto shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien employed in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Fines exacted and paid under this section shall not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which they were exacted, but shall be accounted for separately and shall be reported to the Secretary of Labor, with the name of the alien on account of whom the fine was exacted, and such other information as may be required by him.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien arrived on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to the owners of such vessel, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the payment exacted to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and solely for medical treatment, or unless to such extent and upon such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines exacted and paid under this section shall not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which they were exacted, but shall be accounted for separately and shall be reported to the Secretary of Labor, with the name of the alien on account of whom the fine was exacted, and such other information as may be required by him.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to the owners of such vessel as a result, shall be prima facie evidence to a justification of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Fines exacted and paid under this section shall not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which they were exacted, but shall be accounted for separately and shall be reported to the Secretary of Labor, with the name of the alien on account of whom the fine was exacted, and such other information as may be required by him.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members (Form 632) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there conforming the names of all alien members of the crew as the same appear on the ship's articles, and shall indicate the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company. When and where they were respectively naturalized, and the number of the certificate, if any, and the name of the vessel on which they last arrived in the United States, and the consular certificate, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those who have died, and the dates and places thereof, and the number of those who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as aforesaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

SEC. 39. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines prescribed by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been imposed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said Act, shall not prevail, been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman, or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That fact that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to detain or deport alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived be difficult or impracticable, and such vessel is not required for the return of other alien seamen, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be fixed and assessed as a penalty against the vessel.

(d) That fact that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to detain or deport alien seaman.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be fixed and assessed as a penalty against the vessel.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been imposed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, shall not prevail, been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there conforming the names of all alien members of the crew as the same appear on the ship's articles, and shall indicate the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company. When and where they were respectively naturalized, and the number of the certificate, if any, and the name of the vessel on which they last arrived in the United States, and the consular certificate, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those who have died, and the dates and places thereof, and the number of those who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as aforesaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury to the vessel on which he arrived, or for the sole purpose of obtaining treatment by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or for such time as may be necessary to secure the services of a substitute: Provided, That such seaman shall be detained on board the vessel at the expense of the owner thereof, or his agent, pending the decision of the immigration officer at the port of arrival as to whether he is entitled to land in the United States, unless security is given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such seaman will not become a public charge, and that he will be available for deportation if he is not found entitled to land.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who brings into the United States any alien seaman employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused such seaman to be detained on board for observation, or has delivered such seaman to the master of a vessel for detention on board thereof pending such inspection or to a hospital designated by such immigration officer, or has given a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and to indemnify the United States against any expenses which may be incurred by it in the maintenance and transportation of such alien seaman, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $17,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such duration when the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fine on alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on such vessel or other vessel sailing to the same destination at the request of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely those to be hand on and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such information as the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such alien seamen arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report each case of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the Secretary of Labor, by or the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of such vessel is located, has certified to the collector of customs that the provisions of this section have been complied with, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be refused for any vessel until the time required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been met. Nothing in this section shall prevent the immediate departure of any vessel which has been detained on board for the sole purpose of awaiting the action of the Secretary of Labor, or the result of any appeal taken from his decision, if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deposit with the collector of customs a sum sufficient to pay the cost of the return of such alien seaman to the country whence he came, or to the place from which he last entered the United States, or such other place as he may be entitled to enter, and such sum shall be retained by the collector of customs until the Secretary of Labor has rendered his decision in the case: Provided, That no such deposit shall be required in the case of any alien seaman who has been in the United States for a period of five years or more prior to the time he last arrived at a port in the United States.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 524) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there conforming the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of the said aliens who are destined to the United States; to furnish such information in addition to the foregoing as the Secretary of Labor may from time to time require; and to deliver to the said officer a true and correct list of all aliens who may be employed on board such vessel upon her departure from the port of arrival, stating the additions, if any, which have been made in the list of the crew during her stay in port, and the reasons therefor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this section or with the regulations prescribed thereunder shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, which penalty may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver lists required by the immigrant inspectors at the time of departure from the last port outside the United States, or who refuses or neglects to report, list, and detain aliens as required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless and until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is satisfied that the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which such alien seaman was employed has furnished a bond or undertaking approved by the Secretary of Labor in such sum not exceeding $300 for each alien seaman employed on such vessel as may be required by such immigration officer, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States on board the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel leaving such port before the departure of such vessel, or within such time thereafter as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor, and conditioned further to indemnify and save harmless the United States, its officers, and agents against any and all claims that may be brought against them on account of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel in consequence of the admission of such alien seaman and his departure from the United States. Such bond or undertaking may be sued upon and recovered in the name of the United States for the use of any person who may be injured or damaged by reason of the breach thereof. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the detention in the United States of any alien seaman for whom a bond has been given and approved as herein provided.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any place other than the port at which such vessel shall have been reported and entered by the master thereof, shall be reported by the master of such vessel to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and such alien seaman shall be detained on board or at such other place as may be designated by such immigration officer pending examination by the medical examiners), and no such alien seaman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival there a complete list of the persons on board such vessel (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deliver such manifest or lists, or any true copy thereof, or any additions thereto, when required by the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers before the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every fine or penalty imposed or bond required by the provisions of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, to that fine or penalty by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or cause to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's entry at the port of arrival a complete list of all the persons on board such vessel, stating as to each alien seaman the information required by the provisions of this section, and that such alien seaman was employed on board such vessel at the time of her arrival at such port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel has cleared or departed from the port without the payment of such fine or penalty, or the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or such deposit or bond has been forfeited, he shall report the facts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall withhold clearance for the vessel from any port of the United States to the port at which such alien seaman was employed, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act has been made.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival there a complete list of the persons on board such vessel (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deliver such manifest or lists, or any true copy thereof, or any additions thereto, when required by the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers before the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port other than the port at which such vessel shall have been reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or cause to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the time of the vessel's entry at the port of arrival a complete list of all the persons on board such vessel, stating as to each alien seaman the information required by the provisions of this section, and that such alien seaman was employed on board such vessel at the time of her arrival at such port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel has cleared or departed from the port without the payment of such fine or penalty, or the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or such deposit or bond has been forfeited, he shall report the facts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall withhold clearance for the vessel from any port of the United States to the port at which such alien seaman was employed, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Newfoundland, Panama, Canal Zone, or Bermuda to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck, or other casualty, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except under such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection it shall be the duty of such immigration officer to make as soon after the vessel's arrival as practicable), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deposit after reinspection by the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

54—1211

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fully satisfied, and no fines unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescription by section 38 of said act thereof shall have been served, the deposit specified in rule 55 have been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deposit at the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those to be brought back and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and such other information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of those, if any, who have been taken on board and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or died; and also the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been taken on board and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or died; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid in regard to any alien employee, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay for each such alien employee concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a fine of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of crewmen of alien nationality who desert at the port of arrival (from ex.) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the scene at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members per a crew (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed fourteen as the time of the arrival but who shall have been taken on board at some intermediate port, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all persons born fourteen as the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind on account of illness or injury, with such information as may be required from time to time by the Secretary of Labor. If the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place is unable to deliver the lists of aliens required by this section, he shall in lieu thereof deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a certificate stating the reasons for his inability to deliver such lists, and the number of aliens employed on board such vessel who are not included in such certificate, and the immigration officer may require the production of such documentary evidence as he may deem necessary to establish the facts set forth in such certificate.

SEC. 38. That any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place who shall refuse or neglect to deliver lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have personally boarded such vessel (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who shall fail to deliver such manifest or lists at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port where the immigration officer is located (the same to be the first port of arrival in the United States from any foreign port or place), or who shall refuse to report to the Secretary of Labor the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who shall fail to deliver such seamen on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

No alien seaman shall be allowed to land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place unless such seaman has been duly certified by the medical examiner at the port of arrival to be entitled to land, and no such seaman who has been certified to land at any port shall be required to undergo medical examination at any other port in the United States unless upon the certificate issued to him at the first port of arrival or landing it appears that such seaman has been certified for a limited time only, in which case he may be required to undergo medical examination at the end of such time. Upon the certification by the medical examiner that any seaman is suffering from a contagious disease, he shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port, and if such disease is found to exist after the vessel leaves the port, such seaman shall be returned at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived to the port from which such vessel last sailed, or to the country where he shall have begun his journey, at the option of the master. Any seaman who refuses to submit to such medical examination shall be deemed a public charge, and the master of the vessel on which he arrived may be required to return him to the country whence he came or to pay a sum not exceeding $300 for his support and maintenance while detained, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor. Any seaman who deserts while detained on account of any of the provisions of this section shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act, and shall be forever debarred from entering the United States. The cost of maintenance and transportation of such seamen shall be a lien against the vessel on which they arrived, and shall be paid to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof upon the payment by him of the sum required for the maintenance of such seamen, or shall be recovered from him in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot reasonably be detained for the immediate deportation of such seamen on board thereof, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall, upon the demand of the Secretary of Labor, furnish a sufficient bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned for the deportation of such seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall desert from the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act, and shall be forever debarred from entering the United States. The cost of maintenance and transportation of such seamen shall be a lien against the vessel on which they arrived, and shall be paid to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof upon the payment by him of the sum required for the maintenance of such seamen, or shall be recovered from him in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot reasonably be detained for the immediate deportation of such seamen on board thereof, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall, upon the demand of the Secretary of Labor, furnish a sufficient bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned for the deportation of such seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because detained as a witness in connection with the prosecution of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or for the deportation of such seaman, or for the treatment or detention of such seaman pending such deportation, or to secure his return on board the vessel on which he arrived or some other vessel. Upon the certification by the medical examiner that any seaman is suffering from a contagious disease, he shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or if landed from the vessel, kept by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

No alien seaman shall be allowed to land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place unless such seaman has been duly certified by the medical examiner at the port of arrival to be entitled to land, and no such seaman who has been certified to land at any port shall be required to undergo medical examination at any other port in the United States unless upon the certificate issued to him at the first port of arrival or landing it appears that such seaman has been certified for a limited time only, in which case he may be required to undergo medical examination at the end of such time. Upon the certification by the medical examiner that any seaman is suffering from a contagious disease, he shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or if landed from the vessel, kept by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall desert from the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act, and shall be forever debarred from entering the United States. The cost of maintenance and transportation of such seamen shall be a lien against the vessel on which they arrived, and shall be paid to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof upon the payment by him of the sum required for the maintenance of such seamen, or shall be recovered from him in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot reasonably be detained for the immediate deportation of such seamen on board thereof, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall, upon the demand of the Secretary of Labor, furnish a sufficient bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned for the deportation of such seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily while in pursuance of his employment, or for treatment, or for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (after inspection of such alien seaman on board such vessel and after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the discharge of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be ascertained by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to have been illegally landed from the vessel, within a period of five days after such landing occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced as provided for the enforcement of penalties for violations of the navigation laws.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 32 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 33 of said Act of May 26, 1924, has not been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 32. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board discharged in the port of arrival; to list containing as much of such information as can be ascertained by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of all leave boat thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such alien seamen as have died or deserted since the last report was rendered. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or neglects to deliver either of the lists required by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $400 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above provided, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and intended final destination of each alien for whom a permit to land is demanded, the intended length of stay in the United States, and whether or not he has been previously deported or excluded and the cause therefor, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor relative to the right of any such alien to enter the United States; and it shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists required by this section, or to report such cases of desertion or landing, each owner, agent, consignee, and master of such vessel shall pay to the Secretary of Labor, for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be cleared while any fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fully paid, unless remitted, and not then unless notice of appeal to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place is shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless and until the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall furnish a bond in such sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, and with such sureties as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that unless such alien seaman shall depart from the United States on said vessel or some other vessel at the next port or place at which she shall touch after the granting of such permission, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor, such alien seaman shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws, and that such owner, agent, consignee, or master will pay to the collector of customs a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing vessel on which he arrived or upon some other vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart after temporary permission granted by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman if sent back on such vessel, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be remitted or refunded except as provided in subdivision (d) hereof.

(f) Any alien seaman who shall desert or attempt to desert any vessel in the United States shall be deported as provided in this section, and shall be ineligible to receive any certificate in his favor from the United States Shipping Board.

(g) Any alien seaman who shall be employed on board any vessel in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in this section, and shall be ineligible to receive any certificate in his favor from the United States Shipping Board.

(h) Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

(i) The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to enter into contracts with any transportation company for the detention on board vessels arriving in the United States of alien seamen employed on such vessels, pending the examination of such seamen by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, and the removal of such seamen who are excluded from admission to the United States by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, and for the transportation of such seamen who are excluded from admission to the United States by the immigration officers at the port of arrival to the country to which they belong or in which they have a permanent residence, or to such other country as may be willing to receive them, and for the maintenance and hospital treatment of such seamen who become ill during the period of their detention, pending the decision as to their admission or removal, and for the burial expenses of such seamen who may die during such detention, and the Secretary of Labor is authorized to make such rules and regulations and to issue such orders as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport on board such vessel such alien seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 32. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port a manifest [here commence the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively held in the ship's company. When and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who sign articles in a foreign port and will be discharged in the port of arrival; or [here commence to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such ship or such alien has failed to deport in accordance with the provisions of this section, stating the full name, nationality, last residence, and intended destination of each such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and produce the documents of any such vessel if shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each such immigration officer at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port a complete list of the crew, which list shall be verified by the master, purser, or other officer who has charge of the ship's papers, and shall show the full name of each person who is employed or shipped on such vessel in any capacity, the place of birth, the last known residence, the nationality, the port at which such person was shipped, the capacity in which such person is employed, and the final destination of such person; and such master, purser, or other officer shall subscribe to a declaration at the end of such list before the immigration officer in charge of the port to the following effect: I do solemnly declare that the list or manifest of the crew of this vessel now produced by me contains true answers to the questions required to be answered concerning each person mentioned therein, to the best of my knowledge and belief. Such declaration may be made before a consular officer of the United States in the case of vessels sailing from foreign ports at which such officers reside, and in such case the list or manifest of the crew shall be delivered to the immigration officer in charge of the port of first arrival within twenty-four hours after the vessel's entry into port. Any master, purser, or other officer who shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest, or to answer any question concerning any person who was a member of the crew, or who shall refuse to make such declaration, or who shall make a false answer to any such question, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, purser, or other officer who shall fail to perform any other duty required of him by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense. Any master, purser, or other officer who shall knowingly land or permit to land from any vessel arriving at a port in the United States any alien who has not been duly entered on the list or manifest of the crew, or who has not been reported and a permit granted for the landing of such alien, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each such alien landed or permitted to land. Any such alien may be detained on board such vessel by order of the immigration officer in charge of the port, and the cost of such detention shall be a lien against such vessel, and shall be paid to the collector of customs before such vessel shall be granted clearance. Any such alien may be taken on shore for examination by the immigration officer in charge of the port at such time and place and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any such alien who shall not be allowed to land shall be returned on the vessel bringing him to the port or on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from foreign territory adjacent to the United States, or on the vessel on which he was last employed, as the immigration officer in charge of the port may direct. The cost of the maintenance of any such alien while detained on board ship or on shore, and of his return, shall be borne by the master, agent, consignee, owner, or lessee of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, and a lien for the amount of such cost and expense may be placed upon the vessel by the immigration officer in charge of the port and enforced by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and the fine may be remitted or refunded: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the payment of such fine in the case of vessels touching at ports in the United States for the purpose of discharging cargo and taking on cargo, if the master, agent, consignee, owner, or lessee of such vessel shall furnish a bond sufficient to cover such fine, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such bond is approved by the collector of customs. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, remitted, or refunded, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor in cases of appeal from the decision of the immigration officer in charge of the port. Fines imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been imposed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been intercepted by section 35 of said Act, or the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector, pursuant to section 32 of the Act of February 5, 1917, at the time of the vessel's arrival at the port of first arrival; and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel's log or other records. The list or manifest of aliens employed on board vessels arriving at a port in the United States from foreign ports or places shall be made out in quadruplicate, and the original and one copy delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, the second copy to be delivered to the customs officer at the port of departure, and the third copy retained by the master for production to the immigration officer at the port of arrival of the vessel at her next port in the United States. The fourth copy shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure from the United States. Any master who shall refuse to deliver such list or manifest, or to answer any question concerning any person who was a member of the crew, or who shall refuse to make such declaration, or who shall make a false answer to any such question, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall fail to perform any other duty required of him by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense. Any master who shall knowingly land or permit to land from any vessel arriving at a port in the United States any alien who has not been duly entered on the list or manifest of the crew, or who has not been reported and a permit granted for the landing of such alien, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each such alien landed or permitted to land. Any such alien may be detained on board such vessel by order of the immigration officer in charge of the port, and the cost of such detention shall be a lien against such vessel, and shall be paid to the collector of customs before such vessel shall be granted clearance. Any such alien may be taken on shore for examination by the immigration officer in charge of the port at such time and place and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any such alien who shall not be allowed to land shall be returned on the vessel bringing him to the port or on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from foreign territory adjacent to the United States, or on the vessel on which he was last employed, as the immigration officer in charge of the port may direct. The cost of the maintenance of any such alien while detained on board ship or on shore, and of his return, shall be borne by the master, agent, consignee, owner, or lessee of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, and a lien for the amount of such cost and expense may be placed upon the vessel by the immigration officer in charge of the port and enforced by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and the fine may be remitted or refunded: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the payment of such fine in the case of vessels touching at ports in the United States for the purpose of discharging cargo and taking on cargo, if the master, agent, consignee, owner, or lessee of such vessel shall furnish a bond sufficient to cover such fine, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of debarkation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport any seaman on board such vessel after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination or deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman who has been reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue interest is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerned whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such vessel be granted clearance until such expenses had been paid to its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens reviewed by section 30 of the act of February 5, 1917, have been terminated, and not then unless bonds to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 30 of said act thereof have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival such countries the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or such countries so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel. Exact a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such place or places outside thereof, or land: but in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so to deliver either of the lists, or to report any alien arrived and discharged, temporarily, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each such offense be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such vessel be granted clearance until such expenses had been paid to its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of citizens of each nationality or race (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or copies of same required by section 12 of the act of February 20, 1907, to be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 6e3) shall not be considered complete unless it contains the names of all persons on board, including the master and crew, and the nationality of each. The word "nationality," as used in this connection, is to be construed to refer to the country to which each person mentioned clearly owes allegiance, as "Scotch," "English," "German," "French," "Russian," "Turkish," "Armenian," or "Hebrew," and not to the place of birth. Wherever possible, the name of the city, town, or village from which each person came to the United States should be given, as "Liverpool," "London," "Cork," "Belfast," "Dublin," "Glasgow," "Paris," "Berlin," "Hamburg," "Bremen," "Vienna," "Budapest," "Rome," "Naples," "Odessa," "Moscow," "Helsingfors," "Christiania," "Stockholm," "Copenhagen," "Lisbon," "Athens," "Constantinople," "Jerusalem," "Beirut," "Smyrna," "Montreal," "Toronto," "Winnipeg," "Vancouver," "Mexico City," "Havana," "Matanzas," "Santiago," "Kingston," "Port au Prince," "Tokyo," "Nagasaki," "Seoul," "Pusan," "Melbourne," "Sydney," "Auckland," "Wellington," "Honolulu," "Apia," and "Rotterdam," "Amsterdam," "The Hague," "Antwerp," "Brussels," "Geneva," "Barcelona," "Madrid," "Valencia," "Palermo," "Naples," "Milan," "Florence," "Venice," "Liverpool," "Glasgow," "Belfast," "Dublin," "Cork," "Queenstown," "Plymouth," "Southampton," "London," "Birmingham," "Manchester," "Leeds," "Sheffield," "Bristol," "Portsmouth," "Hull," "Newcastle," "Cardiff," "Swansea," "Aberdeen," "Edinburgh," "Dundee," "Stirling," "Perth," "Inverness," "Greenock," "Ayr," "Dumfries," "Galway," "Limerick," "Sligo," "Londonderry," "Coleraine," "Portrush," "Larne," "Belmullet," "Valentia," "Queenstown," "Fishguard," "Milford Haven," "Swansea," "Cardiff," "Newport," "Pembroke," "Llanelli," "Aberystwith," "Barmouth," "Holyhead," "Llandudno," "Caernarvon," "Bangor," "Beaumaris," "Douglas," "Peel," "Castletown," "Ramsey," "Cherbourg," "Havre," "Rouen," "Paris," "Dieppe," "Boulogne," "Calais," "Marseilles," "Bordeaux," "La Rochelle," "Brest," "St. Nazaire," "Nantes," "Hendaye," "Biarritz," "Pasajes," "Santander," "Coruña," "Vigo," "Oporto," "Lisbon," "Faro," "Funchal," "Horta," "Ponta Delgada," "Gibraltar," "Malaga," "Algeciras," "Tarifa," "Cadiz," "Seville," "Huelva," "Gibraltar," "Malaga," "Algeciras," "Tarifa," "Cadiz," "Seville," "Huelva," "Casablanca," "Mogador," "Mazagan," "Saffi," "Mazagan," "Tangier," "Larache," "Arzila," "Rabat," "Mehdia," "Sale," "Casa Blanca," "Fedala," "Port Said," "Alexandria," "Beirut," "Jaffa," "Haifa," "Acre," "Smyrna," "Mersina," "Alexandretta," "Latakia," "Tripoli," "Beirut," "Tyre," "Constantinople," "Trebizond," "Samsoun," "Batoum," "Odessa," "Sevastopol," "Yalta," "Kertch," "Theodosia," "Kherson," "Nikolaieff," "Libau," "Windau," "Pernau," "Reval," "Helsingfors," "Abo," "Wasa," "Uleaborg," "Tornea," "Gefle," "Soderhamn," "Hudiksvall," "Sundsvall," "Hernosand," "Umea," "Skellefteaa," "Lulea," "Pit

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector nearest the vessel at the port of arrival, and data in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival in duplicate, and a further duplicate delivered to the master for the use of the immigrant inspector at each succeeding port at which the vessel may touch before sailing for the United States.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively examined by the medical examiners, and specifying what aliens of those so reported by the said medical examiners they intend to employ, and what aliens they intend to discharge in the port of arrival; to list contained on board of such vessel information as to the sanity and health of each alien and such other information relative thereto as may be required by the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor; and it shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel, before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, to report to the immigration officer in charge of the port the name of each alien employed on board such vessel since the last report was rendered, and the reason for the employment of each such alien, and to deliver to such officer a complete list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those left behind sick in hospital, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or illness, such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to the cause of such illness, and to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of departure a complete list of the crew, showing the additions to the crew since the previous report, the cause for the same, and the time and place of engagement, and shall furnish to such immigration officer such information as may be required by him concerning the persons employed or discharged from such vessel since the previous report or the last port of call in the United States, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall refuse to answer any question put to him by any immigrant inspector or other officer of the United States Government concerning any matter connected with the enforcement of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or who shall make any false answer or statement in response thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 39. That no person, company, partnership, or corporation shall engage in the business of importing any alien into the United States under contract or agreement, parol or special, express or implied, made previous to the importation of such alien, to perform labor in the United States, unless such person, company, partnership, or corporation shall first have obtained a license therefor from the Secretary of Labor, as provided in this section. Any person, company, partnership, or corporation desiring such license shall make application therefor to the Secretary of Labor, and shall furnish such information, upon such blanks, and at such times as the Secretary of Labor may require. Such application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the person making the same, or by the president or secretary of the company, partnership, or corporation making the same, and shall contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may require. Upon the receipt of such application it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Labor to cause such inquiry as he may deem necessary to be made concerning the business and character of the person, company, partnership, or corporation making the application, and may require the production of books of account or other documents for the purpose of such inquiry, and may administer oaths to witnesses appearing in connection therewith. If upon such inquiry the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that the business and character of the person, company, partnership, or corporation making the application are such as to warrant the belief that aliens will be imported under contracts or agreements of the character above described for labor which will not violate any of the provisions of this Act, and that such person, company, partnership, or corporation intends in good faith to perform such contracts or agreements, he may, in his discretion, grant a license to such person, company, partnership, or corporation to import such aliens as may be specified therein, which license shall remain in force for one year, unless sooner revoked by the Secretary of Labor. Such license shall not be assignable, and shall be granted only upon the express condition that the importation of aliens to be made thereunder is in accordance with the terms of the application therefor, and with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof. Such license may be revoked at any time in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, whenever he shall be satisfied that the holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of this Act, or has failed in good faith to perform any contract or agreement made as aforesaid, and may be revoked, after notice and hearing before the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized agent, whenever in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor the public interests require such revocation. Before any license provided for by this section shall be granted, and as a condition precedent to the granting thereof, the person, company, partnership, or corporation making application therefor shall deposit with the Secretary of Labor a sum of money sufficient in his judgment to pay the return to their homes, at the expense of the importer, of all aliens to be imported thereunder who may become public charges within one year after their arrival in the United States, and a sum sufficient to pay the head tax of such aliens, in case the importer fails to pay such head tax. The decision of the Secretary of Labor as to the sufficiency of the sum deposited shall be final. Such deposit shall be returned to the depositor one year after the date thereof, or at such earlier time as the Secretary of Labor may determine, less such amounts as may have been expended in the return of such aliens and the head tax paid for them. Any person, company, partnership, or corporation importing any alien under contract or agreement, parol or special, express or implied, made previous to the importation of such alien, to perform labor in the United States, shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000. Such fine may be remitted by the Secretary of Labor, if he is satisfied that the importation was made without knowledge of the existence of such contract or agreement. The master of any vessel who shall knowingly bring within the United States any alien, for the purpose of violating the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such person that may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such person shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit prescribed by section 36 of the Act of September 2, 1917, have been complied, and not then unless notice of intention to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act shall have been waived, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary illness as may render his removal, in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor, inadvisable at the time of the departure of the vessel from the port of arrival, and then only under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of foreign port shall certify in writing to the master of the vessel that such alien seaman has been found upon examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service (which examination shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), and that such alien seaman is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disorders which would be sufficient to exclude the alien from admission into the United States under the immigration laws in force at the time of the last entry of such alien seaman, or if such alien seaman is afflicted with any such disease or defect, or if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel refuses or fails to furnish the certificate herein provided for, such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of the Act approved February 5, 1917, and the cost of his maintenance while detained awaiting deportation and of his deportation shall be borne by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disorders which would be sufficient to exclude the alien from admission into the United States under the immigration laws in force at the time of the last entry of such alien seaman, or who refuses or fails to furnish the certificate herein provided for, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the sanity and health of any alien seaman, or while the alien seaman is afflicted with any such disease or mental or physical defect or disorder, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such cost, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from which he deserted, shall be prima facie evidence to a immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has remained in the United States in violation of law.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who has been ordered deported under the provisions of this section to refuse or fail to detain such alien seaman on board such vessel or to take him from the United States on the vessel on which he arrived, and upon failure so to do he shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

(f) Any alien seaman who shall remain in the United States for a period longer than thirty days after he has been ordered deported shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $200 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and upon the completion of his sentence shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States.

(g) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of law shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States.

(h) Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any time within five years after the date of his deportation under the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States, unless prior to his deportation from the United States he shall obtain the permission of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission into the United States, and shall be admitted upon such reapplication in accordance with the immigration laws, regulations, and conditions in force at the time of such reapplication.

(i) Any alien seaman who shall desert while in the United States shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States, and shall be refused a visa by any consular officer to whom he may apply for the period of one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to his deportation from the United States he shall obtain the permission of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission into the United States, and shall be admitted upon such reapplication in accordance with the immigration laws, regulations, and conditions in force at the time of such reapplication.

(j) Any alien seaman who shall fail to report for deportation or who shall willfully fail or refuse to depart from the United States for a period of one year from the date of his deportation shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States, and shall be refused a visa by any consular officer to whom he may apply for the period of one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to his deportation from the United States he shall obtain the permission of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission into the United States, and shall be admitted upon such reapplication in accordance with the immigration laws, regulations, and conditions in force at the time of such reapplication.

(k) Any alien seaman who shall willfully fail or refuse to depart from the United States within the period of one year from the date of his deportation shall be deported in the manner provided for in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States, and shall be refused a visa by any consular officer to whom he may apply for the period of one year from the date of such deportation, unless prior to his deportation from the United States he shall obtain the permission of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission into the United States, and shall be admitted upon such reapplication in accordance with the immigration laws, regulations, and conditions in force at the time of such reapplication.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector portside the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens or alien members of the crew (Form 430) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons who shall be on board such vessel at the time of the vessel's entry, which lists shall be prepared in the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and which shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, and shall contain such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor as to the persons named therein, which information shall be given in answer to questions printed in the lists, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor as to each alien named therein, and as to the right of each alien to admission to the United States. Such lists shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be admitted to pratique, and the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel failing to deliver such lists or to present any alien named therein for inspection shall be liable to a penalty of $300 for each alien concerning whom such failure occurs. The Secretary of Labor may prescribe such additional information to be furnished by masters of vessels arriving at ports of the United States as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of the immigration laws, and may provide for the withholding of clearance papers pending the delivery of such information. Any master who refuses to furnish such information after demand by the proper officer shall be liable to a penalty of $300. Any master who knowingly and willfully delivers a false list or who knowingly and willfully refuses to deliver a list required of him shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

SEC. 37. (a) That the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside adjacent foreign countries to which the provisions of section 36 relate shall, before any alien passenger has been landed or has obtained clearance for the vessel, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a true and correct list, in triplicate, of all such passengers, which list shall contain the following information concerning each alien passenger: Name in full; age; sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; race; last permanent residence; final destination, if known; whether in possession of a ticket through to destination; whether the passage is paid by himself or others, and if by others, whether by relatives or friends or by his employer; whether in possession of $50 and, if not, the amount of money he has with him; whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where; whether ever before rejected or deported, and if so, when and why; whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, his name and complete address; whether he has a ticket to any place beyond the port of arrival, and if so, to what place; whether he intends to return to his country after temporary stay in the United States, and how long he intends to remain; whether he is coming for the purpose of performing labor of any kind, and, if so, what kind; whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States; whether he is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law; whether he is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law; whether he has ever been an inmate of or confined in an institution or hospital for the insane or mentally defective; whether he is coming to the United States to perform labor as a contract laborer; the age, sex, nationality, race, and last occupation in the country from which he comes of each of the wife and children of any such alien who intend to join him; the nationality, race, and last occupation in the United States of any relative or friend whom any such alien intends to join; the amount of money each such alien has with him; whether he has been deported from the United States and if so, when; whether he is a stowaway; whether he is ever been arrested or convicted for any crime or misdemeanor, and if so, what crime or misdemeanor; whether he is a habitual drunkard; whether he is a professional beggar; whether he is under contract or agreement to perform labor in any capacity in the United States; whether he is a polygamist; whether he is an idiot, insane person, epileptic, blind, deaf, dumb, or has any mental or physical defect; whether he has ever been refused admission to any immigration station or has ever been deported, and if so, how many times; whether he has ever been in jail, prison, or almshouse or any institution for the care of the insane or supported by charity, and if so, which; whether he has ever been a habitual criminal, and if so, what crime; whether he has ever been a prostitute or procurer or has ever been connected with prostitution or procuring; whether he has ever been a user of or addicted to the use of opium or any other habit-forming drug, and if so, what drug; whether he has a tuberculous disease, and if so, what disease; whether he has a mental defect, and if so, what defect; whether he has a physical defect, and if so, what defect; whether he has ever been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and if so, what crime; whether he has ever been convicted of a purely political offense.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or upon some other vessel within the period allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who shall depart from the United States without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act to the country to which he belongs or in which he resided before coming to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall be ordered deported shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or shall be detained in the custody of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which he arrived, or of the subsequent vessel on which he is deported, until such time as he can be deported: Provided, That such detention shall not exceed ten days except in case of delay in the receipt of travel documents or the procurement of passage, and the cost of such detention shall be paid by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or fails to deport any alien seaman as required shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been terminated, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 of said act herein has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States under the provisions of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such hospitals as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board the vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to deport such seaman on board such vessel upon inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or shall be ordered deported by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who shall depart from the United States without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which he belongs or in which he resided before coming to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall be ordered deported shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or shall be detained in the custody of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States, or the subsequent vessel on which he is deported, until such time as he can be deported: Provided, That such detention shall not exceed ten days except in case of delay in the receipt of travel documents or the procurement of passage, and the cost of such detention shall be paid by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or fails to deport any alien seaman as required shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived upon the termination of his shore leave granted by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who shall depart from the United States without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, to the country to which he belongs or in which he resided before coming to the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall be ordered deported shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board some other vessel or shall be detained in the custody of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States, or the subsequent vessel on which he is deported, until such time as he can be deported: Provided, That such detention shall not exceed ten days except in case of delay in the receipt of travel documents or the procurement of passage, and the cost of such detention shall be paid by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or fails to deport any alien seaman as required shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests immediately and non-immediate, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according as separate manifests shall be required by the so-called consular class, whose visas need not be taken out before they travel in the same class; and those whose visas need to not be taken out before they travel in different classes, appropriate for a family shall appear above how the same manifest shall be prepared when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The ship, aeroplane, or dirigible in which the alien is on arrival in addition to the city or town.

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative or friend in country whence alien came. Do not abbreviate. It is not to be sufficient to write "Father," "Mother," "Husband," "Wife," "Brother," "Sister," "Friend," or "Cousin," but the full name and address of such relative or friend must be given. If no such relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, state place to which he belongs, as village or town. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The reason to this question likely upon the time of the alien's admission to the United States depends. If the alien intends to join a relative or friend, the entry should show definitely the place (city or town) and State to which he is going, and the name and address of such relative or friend. If the alien has no definite destination, the entry should show definitely the place (city or town) and State in which he intends to remain. If alien intends to remain permanently or indefinitely in the United States, write "permanently" or "indefinitely," as the case may be. Do not write "U. S." or "America" or "here" or "visit" or "business" or "look for work" or "home" or "unknown" or "none" or "don't know" or "seeking employment" or "various places" or "wherever I can get work" or "all over" or "anywhere" or "nowhere" or "not decided" or "not definite" or "not certain" or "not known" or "not sure" or "to be determined" or "to be decided" or "to be determined" or "to be decided" or "to be determined" or "to be decided

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively signed or engaged, and specifying those of the latter who are to be discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by such immigration officer or the master, consignee, or agent of the vessel to whom such immigration officer may delegate the authority; and it shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel, before a certificate of such alien, together with the information likely to lead to his apprehension; and all officers of the vessel, to detain on board or on the dock such alien, and to deliver him to such immigration officer or to any person authorized by such officer to receive him; and any master, owner, agent, consignee, or officer of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this section, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front fines an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or land he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or officer of such vessel, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to obtain or deport alien temporarily by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 48. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to obtain on board via alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been furnished such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front fines an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or land he was rejected by the inspector of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or officer of such vessel, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to obtain or deport alien temporarily by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessities caused by the actual presence of such alien on board such vessel, or for the purpose of obtaining the certificate required by section 10 of this Act, or for the purpose of applying for a visa, or for the purpose of testifying in any case in which he is a witness, or for the purpose of conforming to the requirements of the immigration laws, or for the purpose of proceeding in immediate transit through the United States to a foreign country, or for the purpose of taking passage on a vessel departing from the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the admission of the alien seaman the payment of a bond in such amount and with such sureties as he may require, conditioned upon the departure of such alien seaman on board the vessel upon which he arrived in the United States or on board some other vessel, or conditioned upon the performance by such alien seaman of such other acts as he may deem necessary in respect of such alien seaman: Provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section in the case of any alien seaman who has been in the United States for a period of one year next preceding his application for such waiver, and who is found by the Secretary of Labor to be a person of good moral character and who is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws as a returning resident alien.

SEC. 28. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of North America to obtain on board such vessel the services of any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall file with the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a list containing the name of each alien seaman to be employed, and shall produce such alien seaman for medical examination by the medical examiner); and no such alien seaman shall be employed on board such vessel unless and until he shall have been certified by the immigration officer at the port of entry as admissible under the immigration laws, and shall have been given a landing card duly signed by such immigration officer. No such alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel at any port in the United States other than the port at which he was certified by the immigration officer at the port of entry, except upon the consent of the Secretary of Labor and under such conditions as he may prescribe. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall employ any alien seaman in violation of this section shall pay a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman so employed. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel violating the provisions of this section.

(b) Every alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, when such vessel departs from the United States, shall be deported to the country to which he belongs, unless he (1) is a bona fide resident of the United States and is employed on such vessel by the same person by whom he was employed when such vessel arrived in the United States, or (2) obtains a permit to remain in the United States, or (3) is a native-born citizen of the United States who, having lost his citizenship, is seeking to regain it, or (4) is a native-born citizen of a foreign country contiguous to the United States who is employed on such vessel in the service for which he was employed when such vessel arrived in the United States, or (5) is a member of the crew of such vessel who is a citizen of a foreign country which does not by law or treaty grant to citizens of the United States the right to be employed as seamen on vessels of such country, or (6) is a member of the crew of such vessel who is a citizen of a foreign country which does not by law or treaty grant to citizens of the United States the right to be employed as seamen on vessels of such country, unless the consul general or consul of such country shall certify that such seaman is not employed on such vessel in violation of the laws of such country.

(c) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported as an alien who entered the United States without inspection at the time of his entry, unless he (1) was a bona fide resident of the United States and was employed on such vessel by the same person by whom he was employed when such vessel arrived in the United States, or (2) obtains a permit to remain in the United States, or (3) proves to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to obtain the services of a master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, or (4) proves to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was forced to desert by reason of cruelty practiced upon him or by reason of unsanitary conditions existing on board such vessel, or (5) is a native-born citizen of the United States who, having lost his citizenship, is seeking to regain it, or (6) is a native-born citizen of a foreign country contiguous to the United States who is employed on such vessel in the service for which he was employed when such vessel arrived in the United States, or (7) is a member of the crew of such vessel who is a citizen of a foreign country which does not by law or treaty grant to citizens of the United States the right to be employed as seamen on vessels of such country, unless the consul general or consul of such country shall certify that such seaman is not employed on such vessel in violation of the laws of such country.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall be found in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States without inspection, and in addition thereto shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(e) The Secretary of Labor shall cause proper notice of the provisions of this section to be given masters of vessels arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and shall prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of this section, and may employ such additional inspectors as may be necessary for such enforcement.

(f) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this section in the case of any alien seaman who has been in the United States for a period of one year next preceding his application for such waiver, and who is found by the Secretary of Labor to be a person of good moral character and who is otherwise admissible under the immigration laws as a returning resident alien.

SEC. 29. (a) Every alien seaman who shall be found in the United States in violation of section 28 shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States without inspection, and in addition thereto shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall cause proper notice of the provisions of section 28 to be given masters of vessels arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and shall prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of such section, and may employ such additional inspectors as may be necessary for such enforcement.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense shall not be treated clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not on no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

"Master" as applied to vessels means and includes every person having command or charge of any vessel.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions such respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those so to be held on the discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at such time and in such manner as may be required and prescribed by such officer, a further list containing the names of all such aliens employed, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not exceeding $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and shall not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 35 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been satisfied, and such fine unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 35 of said Act have been paid.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory or adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by reason of the sickness or injury of such alien from the United States, unless specially admitted by the Secretary of Labor from any place outside thereof, or shall be found after such vessel shall have departed from the United States to have been concealed on board thereof, and in default of the payment of such fine or of the deportation of such alien the vessel on board which he arrived shall be liable.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof with alien seamen employed on board thereof shall, before such vessel shall depart from the port of arrival, report the name of each such alien seaman, the manner in which such alien seaman was employed, the capacity in which he was employed, the wages agreed to be paid him, and such other information in relation to each such alien seaman as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall furnish to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each such alien seaman on board such vessel at the time of such report, and in addition thereto the sum of $10 for each such alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel or who shall be found to have secreted himself on board such vessel after such report was made, or who shall have been employed on board such vessel at any time after the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival and before the departure of such vessel from the United States, unless such alien seaman shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States or shall have been regularly discharged in a foreign port and shall have submitted to the examination provided for in section 16 of this Act. Such sum shall be refunded to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel upon the production of the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has been lawfully admitted to the United States or has been regularly discharged in a foreign port and has submitted to the examination provided for in section 16 of this Act, or upon the production of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the port from which such vessel departed from the United States, or at such other port as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, and the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has been produced by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel at such port: Provided, That no such sum shall be refunded unless application therefor is made within one year from the date of the departure of such vessel from the United States.

(b) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section in the case of any vessel which regularly arrives from ports contiguous to the United States, or which plies between the United States and such ports, and may by regulation provide for the application of such subdivision to such vessels as he may deem necessary.

(c) If the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or found to have secreted himself on board such vessel after such report was made, or who shall have been employed on board such vessel at any time after the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival and before the departure of such vessel from the United States, unless such alien seaman shall have been lawfully admitted to the United States or shall have been regularly discharged in a foreign port and shall have submitted to the examination provided for in section 16 of this Act, shall be deported to the country to which the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived is a citizen, subject, or national, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall land in violation of this section shall be deported as an alien seaman arriving after the time limit allowed for departure.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will be unduly expensive or impracticable, he may cause such alien seaman to depart upon any vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, or of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

..... Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below will be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and will in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of cabin, second, and alien members of crew to be taken ashore at the port of arrival (from 48 hours to 29 days) will be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. Each list must contain the names of all members employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question as to whether any alien member of the crew is to be detained on board, or allowed to land temporarily or permanently, or to be taken to the United States, except upon the production of the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that all the aliens employed on board have been duly inspected and examined by the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival, and that such of them as are to be detained on board or landed temporarily or permanently have been so detained or landed, or that the owner, agent, consignee, or master of the vessel has given a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment of a penalty of $1,000 for each alien concerning in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question as to whether any alien member of the crew is to be detained or landed, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien who shall be required by the immigrant inspector to be detained on board or at the port of arrival shall be given a written certificate to that effect, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or, if any be employed on board such vessel in a capacity, then the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be responsible for the proper care of such alien while on board or in the port, and for the payment of the cost of his maintenance and for his return to the country whence he came, and for the payment of any fine or penalty which may be imposed upon such alien under the provisions of this section, and for the payment of the head tax if such alien is not in possession of a certificate from the Secretary of Labor showing the payment of such tax or showing that he is exempt therefrom.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assigned on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien, and that such vessel can with safety to the public be allowed to depart from the United States without the return of such alien, he may cause him to be detained on board or at the port of arrival pending the action of the Secretary of Labor. Such alien shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary illness as may be certified by the Secretary of Labor from time to time, or unless specifically authorized by the Secretary of Labor under such conditions as he may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall cause a complete list to be made of the crew and passengers, and of the sex, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each alien therein, which list shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the time of her arrival, or in the case of vessels arriving from ports not adjacent to the United States, within twenty-four hours after the vessel has been admitted to pratique, and before the vessel is granted clearance papers. Such list shall contain such other information relative to each alien therein as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be certified by the master of the vessel and by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Such list shall be prepared in quadruplicate, typewritten, or printed, and shall be in the English language. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall refuse to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or who shall fail to deliver with such list a certificate from the consular officer at the port of foreign embarkation of each alien therein who has procured a visa from such consular officer, or who shall refuse to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival any such certificate in his possession, or who shall refuse to deliver to the Secretary of Labor, or to any person authorized by him to receive the same, any certificate granted by the Secretary of Labor to any alien, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien in respect of whom such failure occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel failing to deliver such list or certificate pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine or imprisonment, but clearance shall not be withheld because of such failure if the master produces such list and certificate within ten days after demand therefor by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival. Such alien shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been intended, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 36 to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, and no final action shall be taken.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment by such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall in alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by such master. Redeposited, or so as to deport such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel is hereby required to pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment by such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel is not to detain or deport alien seamen by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Proof shall in alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman by such master. Redeposited, respectively, or so as to deport such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel is hereby required to pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment by such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those to be landed in the port of arrival; or place contiguous so much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master thereof to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer, in writing, a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has left the vessel without a further permit from the proper immigration officer. Any person who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500 for each such violation, and may also be imprisoned for not more than one year. The master of any vessel who refuses to deliver to any immigrant inspector boarding the vessel upon its arrival at the port of entry the lists required by this section, or who refuses to report, or who reports falsely or incorrectly in any way any such alien, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go and remain on board any vessel for the purpose of performing any duty or exercising any power conferred upon such inspector by this Act, or who refuses to detain any such alien when required so to do by any such inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Masters shall be responsible for the proper care while on board the vessel of such aliens detained on board for examination or pending departure, and for the payment of their expenses while so detained, but not for any hospital expenses. Any such alien ordered deported shall be deported to the country whence he came to the United States, or to the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or denizen, as he may elect, and the cost of his deportation shall be borne by the owners of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States. Such cost shall be a lien upon the vessel, and it shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members prepared on board vessels (Form 436) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien members of the crew (Form 257) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master, first or second officer thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, whether the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively born, their nationality, last residence, and whether they have in their possession or have any knowledge of any money, and how much, and whether they intend to be naturalized in the United States, their final destination, whether they have been in the United States previously, and if so, when, where, and how long they have been absent, whether they have ever been in prison or almshouse or an institution for the care of the insane or supported by charity, whether they are coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, their ability to read and write, their age, sex, marital condition, race, and calling or occupation, whether they are in possession of a through ticket and the name of the railroad or railroads selling such ticket, whether the journey is paid in whole or in part by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or government, and if so, which one, whether they have been deported or returned within one year, and if so, when and why, whether they have ever been in prison or almshouse or an institution for the care of the insane or supported by charity, whether they have ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long ago, whether they have a ticket through to their final destination, and whether they have been assisted in coming by any other person or corporation, society, municipality, or government, and if so, what relation, if any, exists between them, whether they are joining a husband, father, mother, wife, child, or other relative, and if so, what relative, whether they intend to return to the country whence they came, their height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and any distinctive marks of identification, and shall indicate with respect to each alien whether he is over sixteen and under sixty years of age, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer and the surgeon of the vessel, if there be a surgeon, touching the matters contained therein, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, and such additional information shall be furnished as may be required by such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the proper execution of the provisions of this section. Any master or commanding officer of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge and belief any question propounded to him concerning any passenger, or who refuses or neglects to detain any alien when required so to do by the Commissioner General of Immigration or any immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such violation occurs, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 37. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States who shall refuse to deliver on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly authorized immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing such alien seaman's name and such other information as required by section 36 of this Act, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge and belief any question propounded to him concerning any such alien seaman by such immigration officer, or who shall refuse to detain any such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do or shall fail to pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not embark upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States may be made by the master, first or second officer thereof, or other members of the crew, or by the immigrant inspector at the time of her departure, and also the names of those in any way concerned in such desertion, and the circumstances connected therewith, which proof shall be delivered to the collector of customs.

(c) Proof that an alien seaman has been deported upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be made by the master, first or second officer, or other members of the crew, or by the immigrant inspector at the time of her departure, and also the names of those in any way concerned in such desertion, and the circumstances connected therewith, which proof shall be delivered to the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not embark upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained by reason of the failure of the master to deport such alien seaman, the master shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines provided by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, and not then unless notice of intention to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 37 of said act therein, and the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, until after the vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall have departed therefrom, unless specially authorized by the Secretary of Labor, and any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation hereof, or who shall fail to remain on board any vessel upon which he arrives when ordered so to do by the master or any immigrant inspector, or who shall land from any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof at any port other than the port at which he arrived, or who shall land from any vessel at any time without having been inspected and examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act, and shall be ineligible to citizenship and debarred from becoming a naturalized citizen of the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit any such alien seaman to enter the United States temporarily for a period not exceeding twelve months, under a bond in such amount and with such sureties as he may require, conditioned upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States within the period for which he is admitted and upon compliance with such other conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, until after the vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall have been inspected and examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and a certificate from such medical officer to the effect that such vessel is free from cholera, yellow fever, and smallpox has been issued to the master of such vessel: Provided, That in the event such certificate from such medical officer cannot be obtained by reason of the refusal of the health officer at the port of departure to issue the same, or by reason of the existence of cholera, yellow fever, or smallpox at such port of departure, the master of such vessel may make application to the Secretary of Labor, and the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cause such vessel to be inspected by such medical officer at the port of arrival, and if such medical officer shall certify that such vessel is free from cholera, yellow fever, and smallpox, and that the sanitary conditions on board such vessel are such as to warrant the belief that cholera, yellow fever, or smallpox will not be introduced into the United States by such vessel, the Secretary of Labor may issue to such vessel a certificate to that effect, which certificate shall be accepted in lieu of the certificate required by this section.

(b) Any master or commanding officer of any vessel who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such violation.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain on board such alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fact that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or that such vessel departed without the inspection required by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

14—1926

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

LAY. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 7, 1917, have been fully paid, and no fee shall be refunded after the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the proper immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively held in the ships company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and whether those so employed are destined to the port of arrival or to other ports in the United States, and such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to report such cases of desertion or landing such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman, and the fine hereinafter provided for such failure shall be imposed, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance until such fine is imposed, which it cannot be until such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 632) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate address is a "notkeway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

Any alien on arriving vessel, "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival such a list or manifest of all the persons on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or those in the steerage, as may be required by the provisions of this act to be stated therein, which list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered at such time before the vessel's departure from the last foreign port or place at which she touches, and in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by regulations to be approved by the President. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such list or manifest, or who knowingly or willfully delivers a false list or manifest, or who refuses to allow any immigrant officer to board such vessel for the purpose of examining the list or manifest of passengers, or who refuses to allow such officer to make such examination, or who refuses to deliver to such officer any and all papers in his possession pertaining to such vessel or the passengers carried thereon, or who refuses to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the same propounded to him by such officer, or who refuses to allow such officer to take such number of steerage passengers as he may require for examination by the medical officer of the port, or who refuses to detain such passengers on board the vessel for examination by such medical officer, or who refuses to carry back to the last port from which such vessel departed any passenger who may be certified by such medical officer to be unable to land by reason of being afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, and shall also be liable to the United States for the sum of $1,000 for each alien passenger in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof shall be filed as soon as practicable after the arrival of such vessel at a seaport, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver to any officer entitled to demand the same any list or manifest required by the provisions of this act, or of any omission therefrom of any alien who arrived thereon, or of any false statement in any such list or manifest, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the same was occasioned by unavoidable accident or other reasonable cause.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien arriving on the vessel or which he arrived in, but such person may be admitted to the United States if found to be clear of all other objections in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and such person shall not be required to pay any tax, fee, or charge in connection with such admission.

Sworn to before me this ..... day of ..... 19..

Master, Commanding Officer.

Immigrant Inspector.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and description (name, age, sex, nationality, last residence, calling, and destination) of each alien intending to land at the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such intending aliens if there be none on board. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the inspector in charge at the port of arrival before the immigrant inspector shall proceed to question the crew or any member thereof concerning the history, character, and admissibility of any alien seeking to land in the United States: Provided, That the master or other officer of any vessel who shall fail to deliver such lists, or who shall refuse to answer any question concerning the immigration history, character, and admissibility of any alien seeking to land in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any person who shall bring to the United States any alien not duly listed by the master of the vessel on which such alien arrives, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain such alien on board such vessel or at the immigrant station for examination or to carry out the regulations of the Secretary of Labor with respect to such aliens, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master of a vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any alien on board thereof to the proper immigration officer at the time and place specified by the Secretary of Labor shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien so refused or neglected to be delivered, and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such liability upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

14—1930

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

LAT. C. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the liens required by section 38 of the Act of Eighteen F. 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said act therein has been served, the deposit directed in rule 53 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, during the period the vessel remains in port, unless security satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor be given for the removal of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has had reasonable opportunity to examine such seaman for the purpose of ascertaining whether he is subject to be excluded from admission to the United States, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to secure the payment thereof or the filing of a bond with sufficient surety approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crew (Form 632) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a „workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily to the extent and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations to be made by the Secretary of Labor with respect to aliens employed on vessels arriving in the United States, and no such alien shall be admitted to the United States unless upon the certificate of a medical officer of the United States at the port of arrival that such alien has been given a careful medical examination and that he is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or any amendment thereof, and upon the certificate of the United States consular officer who issued the seaman's certificate of identity that such alien has been given a careful physical examination by a medical officer. Any alien seaman who shall be found upon examination by the medical officer at the port of arrival to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or any amendment thereof, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act of May 10, 1920, unless such alien seaman is found to be entitled to enter the United States as a nonimmigrant under the provisions of section 4 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, or is found to be entitled to enter the United States under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens coming to the United States temporarily as members of the crews of vessels arriving at ports of the United States, and is admitted in accordance therewith.

SEC. 16. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than one in the Canal Zone or the island possessions of the United States, shall be responsible for the proper conduct while in the United States of every alien seaman employed on board such vessel, and for the expenses incident to the detention of such alien seaman in the United States, including the cost of his maintenance and medical treatment, if required, and for his deportation, unless security is furnished as provided in this section. Every such alien seaman shall be detained on board the vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival shall have issued a certificate that the seaman has been granted a preliminary physical examination by the medical examiner, or after a further period of detention not to exceed ten days granted by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, unless such seaman is certified by the medical examiner to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or any amendment thereof, or unless such seaman is found to be entitled to enter the United States as a nonimmigrant under the provisions of section 4 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, or unless such seaman is found to be entitled to enter the United States under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens coming to the United States temporarily as members of the crews of vessels arriving at ports of the United States, or unless such seaman is given a special permit by the Secretary of Labor to go ashore temporarily for medical treatment, or unless such seaman is detained for the purpose of prosecution or as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating any provision of this Act, or unless such seaman is detained for the purpose of investigation by the Secretary of Labor. Every such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers while any such alien seaman remains on board after such inspection or after the expiration of any period of detention granted by the Secretary of Labor, unless such alien seaman is detained for the purpose of prosecution or as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating any provision of this Act, or unless such alien seaman is given a special permit by the Secretary of Labor to go ashore temporarily for medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman has been paid off and discharged, and the master has been granted a certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that such alien seaman has been so paid off and discharged, and the master has been granted a certificate by the medical examiner that such alien seaman is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or any amendment thereof, or unless such alien seaman is entitled to enter the United States as a nonimmigrant under the provisions of section 4 (c) of the Immigration Act of 1924, or unless such alien seaman is found to be entitled to enter the United States under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens coming to the United States temporarily as members of the crews of vessels arriving at ports of the United States, or unless such alien seaman is given a special permit by the Secretary of Labor to go ashore temporarily for medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman is detained for the purpose of prosecution or as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating any provision of this Act, or unless such alien seaman is detained for the purpose of investigation by the Secretary of Labor. Every such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers while any such alien seaman remains on board after such inspection or after the expiration of any period of detention granted by the Secretary of Labor, unless such alien seaman is detained for the purpose of prosecution or as a witness in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating any provision of this Act, or unless such alien seaman is given a special permit by the Secretary of Labor to go ashore temporarily for medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman has been paid off and discharged, and the master has been granted a certificate by the immigration officer in charge of

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector stationed at the port of arrival, and shall be so inspected by 10 o'clock a. m. of the day the vessel arrives. The list of aliens to be taken from the vessel shall be legibly written, typewritten, or printed (Roman type) and shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternative number is given, only one shall be entered.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 3. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on board vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged or shipped, and specifying those to be held on board when discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing as much of such information as may be required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and by like regulations prescribed: and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such additional aliens arriving and departing, respectively, as he or the report such cases of desertion of landed, such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either of the lists aforesaid is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above stated, to be remitted by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the inspector of the department to which the master reports. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines rendered by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and the Secretary of Labor notified of the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, unless notice of appeal from such fine is lodged, and the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring hospital treatment, or because of a bona fide search for a position as a member of the crew of such vessel, and for such reasons as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and under such bond as may be required to guarantee the departure of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the adjacent islands shall report the name of every alien seaman employed on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival (which term includes any officer in charge at a subport) has inspected such alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or in the case of such alien seamen on board such vessel after such inspection or to depart such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seamen by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that such deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew now shipped in said vessel from any port or place named for present voyage, and correctly shows the nationality, last permanent residence, and the date and place of birth of each person on board; that I am the master, first or second officer of said vessel; that I have compared the list with the ship's articles, and that the persons therein mentioned are the persons who have been duly shipped by me or with my knowledge and consent; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name, nationality, last permanent residence, or date and place of birth of any person shipped or intended to be shipped as a member of the crew or otherwise employed on board; that I have not knowingly or willfully shipped or employed any person not included in the list; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name, nationality, last permanent residence, or date and place of birth of any person who has been a member of the crew or otherwise employed on board during the present voyage; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name of any port or place at which any person on board has been treated for any infectious or contagious disease during the present voyage; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name of any port or place at which any person on board has been detained at quarantine during the present voyage; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name of any port or place at which any person on board has been refused admission thereto during the present voyage; that I have not knowingly or willfully concealed or misrepresented the name of any port or place at which any person on board has been refused a clearance

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained to such extensions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the aforesaid departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to depart on board such vessel after such inspection or to report such seaman if detained by such immigration officer at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to depart on board such vessel after such inspection or to report such seaman if detained by such immigration officer at the port of Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port to port since during her present voyage.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], Master of the [illegible] of [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a true and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from and port of [illegible] per present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7 and copy of sections 13 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

[illegible]
Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this [illegible] day of [illegible], 19[illegible]

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place in adjacent territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained to await transportation as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate destination of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside foreign contiguous territory who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), to any alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine or alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seaman by such vessel; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor. Matters to such seaman be were cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such reasonable sum to such alien seaman by reason of his being detained for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating the provisions of this section, as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman be were cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such reasonable sum to such seaman by reason of his being detained for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with violating the provisions of this section, as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act hereof has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and severally those to be held on said discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such information as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of other persons who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the lists herein required, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10 for each person concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the duration of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such duration upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of persons of alien nationality or crews (Form 583) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of churches of alien immigrants (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and describing those to be held on and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as is required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired and discharged, and of such place of alien arrivals during and departure, respectively, or as to report such cases of desertion of seamen, such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to deliver either of the said lists of such alien arrivals during the period of time since the last report by the master to the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, as the case may be, under the provisions of this section. If any such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall refuse or willfully neglect to report to such immigration officer or to deliver such lists as herein required, or shall refuse to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge any question touching the matters aforesaid put to him by such officer, or shall refuse to allow such officer to examine the persons on board, or any of them, or any part of the vessel, or to produce the ship's papers for such examination, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine or alien seaman who may depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deposit with the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens received by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been terminated, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fund prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act hereof have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 528) shall not be examined on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the nationality, race, and last residence of each such alien, and stating the particulars required in such lists concerning each alien seaman employed on such vessel, showing which of such aliens are destined to remain in the United States and which intend to depart therefrom, and such other particulars concerning each alien seaman as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, and the Secretary of Labor may by regulations prescribe, and alter from time to time, the number of lists required and the particulars to be contained therein, and may also require additional lists and information concerning any such alien seaman, including a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists required by this section, or Form 528 shall not be returned by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such lists as required by the Secretary of Labor or the Secretary of Commerce.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by permission of the Secretary of Labor, but every such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 hereof, and the cost of his maintenance while in the United States and of his deportation shall be borne by the owner of the vessel on which he arrived: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the deportation of any such alien seaman who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who has resided therein continuously since such entry, if such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is unable to depart from the United States because of physical disability or institutionalization necessary for his recovery, and that he is not a member of any of the classes excluded from admission to the United States by section 3 of this Act.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside foreign territory and destined to any other port in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by permission of the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation, removal, or detention on board the vessel on which any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall file immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outgoing vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the liens required by section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 32 of said Act remains been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by permission of the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alternate deportation, removal, or detention on board the vessel on which any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall file immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart upon the outgoing vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of crews (Form 633) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged or shipped, and absolutely refuse to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such information as may be required by the rules and regulations hereby authorized to be made by the Secretary of Labor, and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such alien employees arriving and deserting, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing; and every owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall fail to report, or who shall report incorrectly, any such alien employee, or who shall land or permit to be landed or transported from any vessel any such alien employee, or who shall fail to deliver lists of the alien employees on board such vessel, or who shall fail to report the illegal landing of any such alien employee, or who shall fail to detain any such alien employee when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien employee in respect of whom such failure occurs. The vessel shall be cleared notwithstanding the detention of any such alien employee by reason of his inability to deposit a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to give a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be known to have been removed by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien employment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be cleared clearance until such expense has been paid to its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary illness as may render his removal inadvisable, as determined by the medical examiners). Such alien seaman, if certified by such immigration officer or the medical examiners, shall be treated as provided in the case of other aliens. Any such alien seaman who shall desert shall be deported upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of his maintenance while under observation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit rendered by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fulfilled, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act, namely, been served, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary illness as may render his removal inadvisable, as determined by the medical examiners, or pending an appeal from a decision excluding him, but no such seaman shall be deported in the first instance to any country other than that whence he came, or the country in which he resided, or the country to which he has a nonimmigrant visa, unless the consul general, consul, or consular agent who issued such visa shall certify in writing that such seaman is destined to such country and specifying the reasons for issuing such visa. Such seaman shall be deported upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of his maintenance while under observation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the enforcement of this act.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be known to have been removed by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport alien employment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

..... Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this ..... day of ..... 19..

..... Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

This list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of alien members of the crew (Form 632) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively taken on board, and specifying those to be held on board detained in the port of arrival, or lists containing no names of such aliens, as the case may be. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of any such vessel if demanded by such officer, and in case any such vessel is about to depart from any place without the United States for the United States without having on board all aliens employed thereon at the time of the departure of such vessel, such lists shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the first port of the United States at which such vessel shall arrive. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists or to report the absence of any alien employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain on board any alien whose detention is required by any immigration officer, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver any such alien for medical examination when required so to do by any such officer, or who shall refuse or neglect to pay the head tax imposed by section 2 of this Act for each such alien, or who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to any such alien for whom a head tax is required by section 2 of this Act a certificate showing the payment of such tax, or who shall refuse or neglect to perform any duty required of him by any provision of this Act, or who shall interfere with or obstruct or hinder or prevent any such officer in the performance of his duty, or who shall refuse or neglect to comply with any order or requirement of any such officer made in pursuance of this Act, or who shall attempt to bribe any such officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any person who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien, or who shall attempt to do any of the foregoing acts, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, for each and every such alien in respect to which any violation of this section occurs. The words "alien" and "aliens" wherever used in this section shall be construed to include persons of alien birth who have not become citizens of the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel before its departure from the United States a certificate issued by the proper officer of the port of departure in the United States, or who fails to deliver on board such vessel before its departure from any place outside

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily or for the immediate examination of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after reinstatement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, shall be permitted to land in the United States from such vessel unless a bond in the penal sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such application is made, conditioned for the payment of the hospital dues and the cost of burial in case of his death, and for the payment of the passage money and maintenance of such alien, if ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be so paid, shall be filed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived or by the owner of the hospital in which such alien seaman is being treated, or by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located (or by the surety on any such bond), or in lieu of such bond the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which such port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such deposit is made, to meet such charges and expenses, and such deposit shall be held to reimburse the person who shall have paid the same, or to pay the same to the proper authorities of the United States entitled thereto, or to such alien seaman or his legal representatives, as the circumstances may require, and such deposit shall not be returned to the depositor until such charges and expenses shall have been paid or returned to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the port of arrival in the United States on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on a vessel of the same owner within four months from the date of his arrival, or who shall depart from the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any foreign contiguous territory, or who shall have been found to have remained in the United States for a longer period than four months after his arrival, shall be taxed $8 unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to depart from the United States within such period because of illness, shipwreck, or other cause or circumstance beyond his control, which shall have been duly reported in writing to the Secretary of Labor within the said period of four months by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived or by the owner of the hospital in which such alien seaman is being treated, or by the collector of customs of the customs district in which such port of arrival is located, and the Secretary of Labor shall have granted a certificate to that effect. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the application for any alien seaman for a period of two months after the date of the deposit of the money with the collector of customs, unless the Secretary of Labor shall sooner have rendered a decision in the case, nor shall clearance be granted such vessel while any suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this section is pending, nor shall clearance be granted such vessel while any tax imposed by this section remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been collected, and may not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act therein been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deposit on board the said vessel duly inspected and approved by the medical examiners), or who fails to deposit such sum on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any foreign contiguous territory, shall be taxed $8 unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to depart from the United States within such period because of illness, shipwreck, or other cause or circumstance beyond his control which could not have been reasonably foreseen: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be exacted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival, and in the event such crew is subsequently changed by the addition of members, a supplemental list of such additional members shall be furnished by the master to the immigration officer at the port of departure.

SEC. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, respectively, and the positions they respectively held in the ships company. When and where they were respectively discharged, and whether they have or have not been granted permits to land, and the immigration officer at the port of arrival may require the masters of such vessels to subscribe to the truth of such lists before some person authorized by him to administer oaths for such purposes. Such lists shall be in such form and contain such other information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has become ill, and the name of such alien, the port at which he was landed, and the vessel in which he came to the United States, and to deliver to such immigration officer a certificate from the examining medical officer as to the nature of such illness, and the probable length of time such alien will be incapacitated by such illness from performing labor, and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to report the death of any such alien and the cause thereof, and to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a certificate of the death of such alien from the examining medical officer, and a full and complete list of the names of all such aliens, and the sum of money and effects left by each, and the disposition made thereof, and the amount of transportation furnished each, and the names and addresses of the persons to whom such money and effects were delivered. Such reports shall be made in writing and subscribed and sworn to by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, and the manner of subscribing and swearing thereto shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to report, deliver, or make oath to any matter or thing required of him by this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, and shall be liable to the payment of the head tax in the case of each alien not reported, and in addition thereto shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required: And no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized by law to grant clearance papers until the master shall have produced to such collector or other officer the certificate of the Secretary of Labor that the head tax and all penalties accruing under the provisions of this section have been paid or that no such taxes or penalties are due: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such tax or penalty or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That if any alien seaman did not depart upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the inspector in charge of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart upon the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 32 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been collected, and not then unless notice of intent to the administrative fine prescribed by section 32 of said act, namely, the deposit prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 33 of said act, namely, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign contiguous territory or adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained to enable investigation as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, bringing an alien seaman employed on such vessel, shall, in addition to a personal physical examination by the medical examiner, be inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), for the purpose of determining whether such alien seaman is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects which would be sufficient to exclude him from admission into the United States under the immigration laws, and whether such alien seaman has in his possession a valid immigration visa, if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That if any alien seaman did not depart upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart upon the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens conferred upon the master by section 12 of the Act of February 20, 1907, and by section 4 of the Act of March 26, 1910, may be used for this purpose if it contains all the information required by said sections to be contained on such list or manifest, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When no alien passenger is carried a list containing the name of the vessel, the name of the master, the number of the crew, and the words "no aliens" should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the name of all aliens employed on such vessel and specifying the nationality, last residence, and destination of each alien, and such information shall be kept in the office of the said officer at the port of arrival for the inspection of immigrant inspectors, and shall not be removed or destroyed by any person except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who refuses to deliver such lists or who refuses to permit such inspection, or who refuses to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival a complete list of all aliens employed on such vessel, or who knowingly makes any false statement in such list, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such false statement is made, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Dominion of Canada or Newfoundland by water, and not destined to any port therein, may, in lieu of the list required by this section, deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a certified copy of the list or manifest of aliens employed on such vessel at the time of her departure from the last foreign port or place from which she sailed, with such additions thereto or changes therein as may be necessary to show the true and complete list or manifest of all aliens employed on board such vessel up to the time of her arrival at such port, which additions or changes shall be certified to by the master under oath before the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

SEC. 37. That any person, company, or corporation bringing an alien to the United States, except a seaman coming in pursuance of the provisions of section 2 of this Act, shall, at the time of the arrival of such alien at a port of the United States, pay a head tax of $8 to the collector of customs, which shall be in addition to any other tax or charge provided for by this Act. Such head tax shall be paid to the collector of customs by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel bringing such alien to the United States, and shall be refunded to the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel if the alien is refused a landing by the immigration officers. Such head tax shall be a lien upon the vessel bringing such alien to the United States, and no clearance shall be granted such vessel by the collector of customs until such head tax is paid or refunded.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the head tax required by section 37 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid or refunded, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative has been prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act of February 5, 1917, have been complied with, and the deposit provided for by section 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Dominion of Canada or Newfoundland, or proceeding to such territories as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation to such territories, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, or on account of the failure of the master, agent, owner, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or because the Secretary of Labor is of opinion that the proper administration of the immigration laws will be prejudiced by the landing of such alien seaman, but shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor pending the departure of the vessel from the port, or pending the alien seaman's removal to the country to which he belongs, or elsewhere, as the Secretary of Labor may direct. Any such alien seaman who is not removed from the United States within five years after the date of his entry into the United States shall be deported in pursuance of the provisions of section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, as if he had entered the United States unlawfully.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Dominion of Canada or Newfoundland, or proceeding to such territories as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation to such territories, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, or on account of the failure of the master, agent, owner, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or because the Secretary of Labor is of opinion that the proper administration of the immigration laws will be prejudiced by the landing of such alien seaman, except temporarily for such treatment or because of such illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, or on account of the failure of the master, agent, owner, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel to comply with any of the provisions of this section, or because the Secretary of Labor is of opinion that the proper administration of the immigration laws will be prejudiced by the landing of such alien seaman, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has been furnished such assurance (which immediately upon such landing shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or of two fairly reputable persons as to the character of such alien seaman, as may be required by such immigration officer at the port of arrival, and such immigration officer at the port of arrival shall require a deposit of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the inability to pay the fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine so levied and collected shall be refunded if the master, agent, owner, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived proves to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the alien seaman did not abscond from the vessel at the time of her departure, and also the source of those, if any, who have been held on and discharged, and of the cause for, if any, why those detained or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists or such alien seaman, the master, agent, owner, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to pay the fine or any part thereof, and such vessel may depart from the port of arrival if a sum sufficient to cover such fine is deposited or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided; and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 3. That the following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: All aliens who can not read and write the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien or any alien who is lawfully in the United States who, after his departure therefrom, shall be found incapable of reading, may, upon application made within six months after his return to the United States and upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor, be admitted to the United States if he is otherwise admissible under the provisions of this Act: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall exclude, if otherwise admissible, persons not literate who establish to the satisfaction of the proper immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor that they are seeking admission to the United States solely to escape religious persecution, such proof to be made to the said officer or to the Secretary of Labor in such manner as may be required by him: And provided further, That for the purpose of ascertaining whether aliens can read the immigrant inspectors shall be furnished with slips containing not less than thirty nor more than forty words in ordinary use, printed in plainly legible type in some one of the languages or dialects of immigrants, and each alien may be required to read the words printed in such slip in such language or dialect as the inspector may direct.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel for medical treatment, or treatment as bona fide patient, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily while such vessel is in the port, or ports, thereof, or

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing in the United States from any place outside the Canal Zone any alien seaman who is refused a permit to land in the United States, except seamen employed on board a vessel which is regularly and frequently entering and clearing from ports of the United States and which has been certified by the Secretary of Labor as hereinafter provided, shall be required to pay the cost of maintenance, medical treatment, and burial, if any be furnished, while it remains during examination by the medical officers of the Public Health Service, and while in the custody of the immigration officers, and also the cost of transportation to the port of embarkation, or to the country whence he came, at the option of the Secretary of Labor, unless such seaman is admitted to the United States or deported within five years after the date of his entry. Any vessel which shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall be denied clearance from any port of the United States while in default. Upon the refusal of any such vessel to deposit sufficient funds to pay the cost of maintenance and treatment of any such seaman, the Secretary of Labor is authorized, in his discretion, to withhold or revoke the clearance of such vessel.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules and regulations governing the admission of seamen under the provisions of this section, and may employ such additional inspectors at such ports as he may deem necessary for the proper execution of this section, and may detail any officer of the Department of Labor for duty at any port. Such officers shall have access to any vessel arriving at such port, and shall have the power to administer oaths in connection with the boarding and examination of crews and the granting of permits to land, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement under oath in connection with the application for a permit to land, or who knowingly uses a permit to land issued to another person, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) Any person who shall bring into the United States any alien seaman in violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front fines on alien seamen did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such vessel has complied with the requirements of this section as to the detention on board thereof of alien seamen, and such fine shall not be remitted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 01 to the fund prescribed by section 36 of said act finally need served, the deposit specified in rule 25 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons who are to be landed in the United States, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, touching the nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, and other matters of any such persons, in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time report is not made as above required, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, and no such vessel shall be cleared or granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance until any expense that need have been incurred or liability incurred by reason of any person remaining on board thereof after the inspection of such vessel, or after notice that such person has been ordered excluded from admission into the United States, shall have been paid or sufficient funds deposited to pay the same, and if the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel fails to comply with any of the requirements of this section or any rule or regulation made thereunder, or submits any false or incomplete manifest, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, for which sum the vessel shall also be liable.

That the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized to make such rules and regulations and issue such instructions not inconsistent herewith as may be necessary to prevent the landing of any alien who has not been duly admitted by an immigrant inspector, and to take such other measures as may be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and may employ such additional inspectors at such ports as he may deem necessary for the proper execution of this section, and may detail any officer of the Department of Labor for duty at any port. Such officers shall have access to any vessel arriving at such port, and shall have the power to administer oaths in connection with the boarding and examination of crews and the granting of permits to land, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement under oath in connection with the application for a permit to land, or who knowingly uses a permit to land issued to another person, shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws. That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector possible the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not be delivered to it in advance of taken from the vessel. The list of aliens on board (Form 688) shall not be required to be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Nils Nielsen, of the SS. V. L. & A. Co., do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Nils Nielsen

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien seaman is a national of a foreign country other than that of the vessel, the fact should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there conspicuously the names of all alien seamen employed on board the vessel, the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and when entitled to be paid off in the port of arrival; to list conspicuously as much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired in the discharged, and of those, if any, who have boarded the vessel for the purpose of secreting themselves therein, and the cause of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists, and the circumstances connected therewith, respectively, so far as the same may be known or discovered by such owner, agent, consignee, or master. Any list of changes of alien members of the crew required to be delivered by the master of a vessel at an intermediate port shall be delivered to the immigration officer in charge at the port where the vessel arrives.

SEC. 39. (a) That the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of the United States, or the Canal Zone, or the Virgin Islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 40. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory, or the Canal Zone, or the Virgin Islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multiple deportation of such alien from the United States.

factors who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (multiple inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and such vessel shall not be granted clearance by the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every fine as aforesaid shall not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrives in the United States from which such fine is imposed, or upon the clearance of such vessel, as a condition precedent to the granting of such clearance.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 689) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens if no such aliens are employed in the ship's company. The list of changes of alien members of crews (form 434) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival; and no alien seaman employed on such vessel shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States, pending the decision of the Secretary of Labor touching the right of such alien to enter the United States, except under bond in such sum, not exceeding $500, as the Secretary of Labor may require, conditioned for the departure of such alien within such period of time as the Secretary of Labor may direct and to such port as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, and to pay to the collector of customs a tax of $8 for each month or fraction of a month during which such alien remains in the United States after the time allowed by the Secretary of Labor for his departure: Provided, That seamen employed on any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place at which the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to obtain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seamen (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to obtain such seamen on board after such inspection or to deport such seamen if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Penal sums on alien seamen did not appear upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was retained by the master of such vessel as a member, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen by the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, and penal sums may be sued for and recovered by the collector of customs in the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the limit instituted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fulfilled, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fund prescribed by section 35 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, unless the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members or crew (Form 6N) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens if such be the fact. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of any such vessel if shall be the duty of each owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who shall thereafter be shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on and discharged in the port of arrival; and also the names of those, if any, who have deserted or landed: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver such lists or such aliens arriving and departing respectively, or to so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the district in which the port is located prior to the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines testified to under section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 39 of said Act therein, been waived, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of the necessity of such alien seaman for the proper navigation of the vessel on which he arrived, and no such alien seaman shall be permitted to land temporarily for any purpose if the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on board which such alien seaman arrived refuses to furnish a bond for such alien seaman in a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be filed by the master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver either at the time of his departure and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired to replace such deserters. Such master, agent, owner, consignee, or charterer shall be given a hearing before the Secretary of Labor, who shall have power to mitigate or cancel such penalty or any part thereof, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem just and proper, and his decision shall be final.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 689) shall not be retained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act having been served, the deposit specified in rule 28 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to detain or deport after requirement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or shipwreck, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who lands or permits to be landed any seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport after reimbursement by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such reimbursement to the vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, unless such fine has been paid.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be delivered in the port of arrival by the master to the principal immigration officer at the time of the entry of the vessel, or in case of vessels not required to enter, then before departure from the port; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to each immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of such alien employees who have died: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector assigned the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members pass of crews (Form 509) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pertaining to the vessel at each port. Arrival data shall in no instance be taken from the vessel's log. The list of changes at each port of call must be delivered by the master of the vessel at the time of departure, or if a terminal subsidy not shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 583) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate address is given, "Form 583" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons on board such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of said persons who are destined to the port of arrival; to state concerning each person the following additional facts, namely: whether a citizen of the United States, and, if not, whether he has an unexpired immigration visa, and if so, the number, date, and place of issuance thereof; whether he has been in the United States previously, and, if so, when and how often; the calling or occupation of each person, if any; whether in possession of $50 in money, and if not, how much less than $50 he has in his possession; whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his name and complete address; whether he has ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so, which; whether a polygamist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or prepaid or other assistance, and if so, by whom such assistance was furnished; whether he is in possession of a ticket to his final destination, and whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, and if by others whether by individuals or by transportation companies; whether he has been deported, and if so, how often and for what cause; whether he has ever been confined in any penal institution, and if so, what institution and for what length of time; whether he is a married or single man; the age, sex, nationality, race, and last permanent residence of each person; whether he is a stowaway; whether he has been a member of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, and if so, whether he has received a pension therefrom, and if not, why not; whether he is deformed or crippled, and if so, how, when, where, and the cause thereof; and such other facts as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor for the information of immigrant inspectors in determining the admissibility of aliens into the United States. The said lists shall be signed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, who shall make oath before the consul at the port of departure to the verity of the statements therein contained. Such lists shall be produced at the request of any United States consular officer, immigrant inspector, or other officer authorized to administer oaths to passengers arriving at ports of the United States, and the master or commanding officer of the vessel may be required to administer the oath provided for in this section to the persons whose names are contained in such lists. Such lists shall be preserved by the master or commanding officer of the vessel and delivered by him to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and a failure to deliver such lists or to present the persons therein named for inspection shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10 for each person whose name is not correctly listed, but no fine shall be imposed if the master or commanding officer of the vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that the person whose name was not correctly listed was a bona fide member of the crew and was employed as such, and that he had no reasonable ground to believe that such person intended to enter the United States unlawfully, and that a list containing the name of such person was delivered by the master or commanding officer of the vessel to the proper immigrant inspector before such person left the vessel for the purpose of entering the United States. Upon the refusal of the master or commanding officer of any vessel to deliver lists containing the names of all persons on board, as required by this section, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, and the vessel may be detained at the port of arrival until the lists are delivered. The penalties provided for in this section shall not be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Labor or any court, save in the case of the death of the master or commanding officer, or his illness to such extent as to prevent his personal attendance, in which case his duties shall devolve upon the first officer or second officer of the vessel who may be available, and he shall be subject to the same penalties and liabilities as the master or commanding officer.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory of Canada to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $17,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver such alien seaman on board such vessel for departure.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel is detained by reason thereof, or that the master or commanding officer of such vessel is unable to produce such alien seaman by reason of the expense of the removal or which he arrived, and such vessel has not been granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (from Canada) and not less than one hour before the vessel's departure from the port.

Any list or manifest presented which does not show the name in full of every person on board, including the master, and the place from which he shipped, and the date of his shipment, and the name of the vessel in which he arrived at the port of arrival, will be returned to the master for correction, and a penalty of $10 will be charged against the vessel unless the master shall make oath that the omission was not with intent to conceal the name of any person who is subject to exclusion or deportation under the immigration laws, and that the list presented contains the names of all persons who came on board at the last port touched at, or state specifically why any name is omitted.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, or commander thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, and such other information regarding them as the Secretary of Labor may require, which lists shall be prepared and delivered in such manner and at such time before the departure of such vessel from such port as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commander and by the certificate of the surgeon of the vessel as to the sanitary condition of the vessel and the health of the crew and passengers thereon, in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any master, agent, owner, or commander of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists, or who delivers incomplete lists, or who refuses to subscribe to and deliver the certificate required, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the crew and passengers thereof, or who refuses to detain on board any such vessel any person liable to be detained for special inquiry, or who refuses to allow any such person to be taken before the proper immigrant inspector, or who refuses to detain any such person when directed so to do by such inspector, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, owner, or commander of any vessel who shall knowingly or willfully conceal or attempt to conceal, or who shall knowingly or willfully aid or abet any alien to conceal, any person who is subject to exclusion or deportation under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(a) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such assumed alien owing to the existence of tuberculosis, mental disease, or defect, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be treated as a head tax. Any clearance bond given by the master of such vessel as a guaranty that such alien would be duly deported shall be void and the full amount thereof collected as liquidated damages in case such alien is not so deported, unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien could not have been deported within the period during which such vessel was required by this section to remain in port, or that the cost of such deportation was paid to the master of such vessel or to the owner or agent thereof by such alien or by some person other than the master, owner, agent, or commander of such vessel.

(b) Every alien arriving at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place is liable to the duty of the owner, agent, master, or commander of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any vessel or vehicle coming to the United States from such place otherwise than by sea, to be examined by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and for such examination such vessel shall be detained at the port of arrival a period not to exceed five days, unless in the meantime the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Such detention shall be upon the order of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and shall be reported immediately to the Secretary of Labor and to the master, owner, agent, or commander of the vessel. Such detention shall be without expense to the United States, except that if the vessel is detained more than five days the cost of the subsistence of the alien detained thereon after the fifth day shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, or commander of the vessel to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such cost may be recovered from any moneys due or belonging to the master, owner, agent, or commander of the vessel, or may be sued for and recovered of the master, owner, agent, or commander of the vessel in any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. Such cost shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by process against the vessel in the admiralty court of the district in which the port of arrival is located, and the vessel may be libeled therefor in the United States district court for such district. Pending the examination and decision of the case and the payment of the cost of detention, the vessel may be required to furnish a bond in such amount as may be determined by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, conditioned upon the payment of such cost of detention, and upon the departure of the vessel with all the aliens on board within the time allowed for such departure or any extension thereof granted by the Secretary of Labor. Upon the refusal of the master, owner, agent, or commander of the vessel to pay the cost of detention or to furnish bond as required herein, the vessel may be libeled therefor and may be seized and held by any United States customs officer until such cost of detention and bond shall be paid or bond approved by the Secretary of Labor. Such vessel may be released from custody upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such cost, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such cost and a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(d) That any alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a fact to be found or denied after reinvestigation by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such assumed alien owing to the existence of tuberculosis, mental disease, or defect, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be treated as a head tax. Any clearance bond given by the master of such vessel as a guaranty that such alien would be duly deported shall be void and the full amount thereof collected as liquidated damages in case such alien is not so deported, unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien could not have been deported within the period during which such vessel was required by this section to remain in port, or that the cost of such deportation was paid to the master of such vessel or to the owner or agent thereof by such alien or by some person other than the master, owner, agent, or commander of such vessel.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to a fine prescribed by section 38 of said Act has been made.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extent as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or departure of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof to which such alien may be destined, or to which he may be transferred by such immigration officer or the master, shall be responsible for the proper care, maintenance, and subsistence of such alien seaman (while inspection is in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and for the payment of the cost of his detention at the rate of $4 per day, and for his removal, deportation, or departure from the United States. Such cost of detention shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by process against the vessel in the admiralty court of the district in which the port of arrival is located, the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman so removed or whose such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such cost, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such cost, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That any alien seaman who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a fact to be found or denied after reinvestigation by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens mentioned in section 8 of the act of February 20, 1907, may be used for this purpose if it contains all the information required by said section. Where no information is required concerning any of the items, a blank space must be left in the list opposite the name of the person concerning whom information is lacking. Where it is impossible to ascertain definitely any item, the best information obtainable must be given, and the words "probably" or "possibly" inserted. Where it is unknown whether the answer to any question should be "yes" or "no," the word "unknown" must be written. Any further information desired by the immigrant inspector must be furnished.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, arranged the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival: to lists containing as much of such information as may be obtained by the master, owner, consignee, or agent of the vessel from the aliens themselves: and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension: and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who were discharged, and the full name, birthplace, and last residence of each person so discharged, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired or shipped: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists herein required to be delivered by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel in the manner and at the time herein specified, or in case any person included in such lists has been unlawfully landed from such vessel, or in case any person has been discharged, and his name not included in such lists, or in case any person has been hired or shipped, and his name not included in such lists, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time report is not made as above provided: and no such vessel shall be cleared clearance papers during the determination of the question of the duplicity to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the liste required by section 36 of the Act of February 20, 1907, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 36 of said act, unless good bonds, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such requirement as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum period, to obtain clothing or such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to detain any alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien employed on such vessel, arranged the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be landed in the port of arrival: to lists containing as much of such information as may be obtained by the master, owner, consignee, or agent of the vessel from the aliens themselves: and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension: and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival and who were discharged, and the full name, birthplace, and last residence of each person so discharged, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired or shipped: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists herein required to be delivered by the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel in the manner and at the time herein specified, or in case any person included in such lists has been unlawfully landed from such vessel, or in case any person has been discharged, and his name not included in such lists, or in case any person has been hired or shipped, and his name not included in such lists, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time report is not made as above provided: and no such vessel shall be cleared clearance papers during the determination of the question of the duplicity to the payment of such fine, and, in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance papers may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Recording on separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traversing in the third class and those so-called "first class" who are not readily identified as such with the same manifest sheet who they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate pen or a pencil shall appear now the same manifest sheet who they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number).—The entry should be the number in the series of the individual on the list.

Column 2 (Name in full).—The surname in full should be entered first, followed by the given names or initials.

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 4 (Married or single).—The proper word should be inserted, as, for example: Married, widowed, or divorced—M or W or D: Single—S.

Column 5 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien artisan, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, shoemaker, tailor, farmer, laborer, mason, carpenter, cook, etc., but not simply "worker" or "laborer," unless the alien has no occupation.

A distinction should be made between persons formerly and now engaged in the occupation of various crafts, as follows:

A farmer laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

A laborer is one who performs general unskilled labor, requiring no previous training.

Geographic conditions should make this distinction on the immigrants, and correct information of this character is necessary, by interpolating during the personal examination of aliens when entering.

Column 6 (Last residence and citizenship).—Alien citizens are subdivided and contains the following questions: "Have you ever been in the United States before?" If answering this question in the affirmative, how many times? "If answering this question in the negative, state the reason why you were not admitted to the United States." If a resident of a country other than the native country, how long did you reside there? Have you ever been in prison or in almshouse or an asylum, or supported by charity? Are you a polygamist? Are you an anarchist? Do you believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law? Do you believe in or advocate the assassination of public officials? Are you coming to the United States to perform any labor if so, what labor? Have you a ticket through to your final destination? Have you been deported from the United States, if so, when? Are you going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his complete address? How much money have you in your possession? (Answer in dollars and cents.)

Column 7 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in the country whence alien came).—The entry should show name, street address, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative or friend in country whence alien came, state the fact. If going to join a relative or friend in the United States, write name and complete address of relative or friend to whom alien is going.

Column 8 (Final destination).—The purpose is to show whether the alien is destined to some definite locality in the United States, and if so, where. A address should include street and number.

Column 9 (Have you been in the United States before?).—The purpose is to show whether the alien has been previously in the United States, and if so, when and how often. If never in the United States before, write "No."

Column 11 (Race or people).—The entry should show the race or people as given in Column 10.

Special attention should be paid to the classification peoples race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth. For instance, Scotch, English, Irish, German, Hebrew, Polish, Bohemian, and Slovak are all races or peoples and not countries. "France" abbreviated under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, but simply "French" by country. An Irish (German, or Hebrew also) race might possibly come under the jurisdiction of England, Switzerland, or even other countries. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

CUBAN

The term "Cuban" refers to the Cuban people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black) whether coming from Cuba or other parts of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien belonging to the so-called Yellow race, whether born under the same immigrant sheet who they travel in the same class and have nonimmigrants as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traversing in the third class and

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recording on separate manifests immigrants

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Technical or abbreviated immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also technical or scientific nonimmigrants those whose travel in the final class and the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the initials of technical advisers, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear next after the same member after they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 2 (Age).—The entry should be a numeral in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 3 (Married or single).—The unmarried should be M (married), S (single), W/W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Clerk, clergyman, laborer, author, barber, baker, blacksmith, bookkeeper, brick mason, butcher, cabinetmaker, carpenter, chauffeur, compositor, cook, dressmaker, engineer, farmer, fireman, housekeeper, housewife, laborer, lawyer, merchant, miner, musician, nurse, painter, physician, porter, saleswoman, salesman, seamstress, servant, shoemaker, stenographer, stockbroker, tailor, tailoress, teacher, tinsmith, typist, waiter, waitress, watchmaker, weaver, wheelwright, or other intelligible designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, between owners of farms and tenants or croppers, as follows:

A farmer is one who owns and operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A tenant farmer is one who works a farm for the farm who operates it.

Shoemaker who makes shoes, cobbler who repairs shoes, shoe worker who works in shoe factory, shoe dealer who sells shoes, shoe finisher who finishes shoes, shoe cutter who cuts shoes, shoe packer who packs shoes, shoe salesman who sells shoes, shoe stitcher who stitches shoes, shoe operator who operates machine in shoe factory, shoe factory worker who works in shoe factory, shoe factory owner who owns shoe factory, shoe factory manager who manages shoe factory, shoe factory foreman who is foreman in shoe factory, shoe factory superintendent who superintends shoe factory, shoe factory president who is president of shoe factory, shoe factory vice president who is vice president of shoe factory, shoe factory secretary who is secretary of shoe factory, shoe factory treasurer who is treasurer of shoe factory, shoe factory clerk who is clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory bookkeeper who is bookkeeper in shoe factory, shoe factory accountant who is accountant in shoe factory, shoe factory auditor who is auditor in shoe factory, shoe factory buyer who is buyer for shoe factory, shoe factory shipping clerk who is shipping clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory receiving clerk who is receiving clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory inventory clerk who is inventory clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory time clerk who is time clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory payroll clerk who is payroll clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory cost clerk who is cost clerk in shoe factory, shoe factory estimator who is estimator in shoe factory, shoe factory designer who is designer in shoe factory, shoe factory pattern maker who is pattern maker in shoe factory, shoe factory model maker who is model maker in shoe factory, shoe factory last maker who is last maker in shoe factory, shoe factory heel maker who is heel maker in shoe factory, shoe factory sole maker who is sole maker in shoe factory, shoe factory upper maker who is upper maker in shoe factory, shoe factory cutter who is cutter in shoe factory, shoe factory stitcher who is stitcher in shoe factory, shoe factory finisher who is finisher in shoe factory, shoe factory packer who is packer in shoe factory, shoe factory laborer who is laborer in shoe factory, shoe factory worker who is worker in shoe factory, shoe factory owner who is owner of shoe factory, shoe factory manager who is manager of shoe factory, shoe factory foreman who is foreman in shoe factory, shoe factory superintendent who is superintendent of

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recording on separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the initials of technical advisers, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 2 (Head-tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following questions: "Read what language [or, if exemption is claimed, upon what ground]." In answering this question the language or dialect the alien is able to read should be stated. If alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifests should be carefully revised by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and, similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien with admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Serial number of document presented).—Prefix serial number of document with abbreviation "QIV", "NQIV", "PV", or "RP", as appropriate, to designate whether it is Quota Immigration Visa, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Passport Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as section 4 (a).

Column 13.—This question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Verifications of landing, etc.).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 15 should show the country, city or town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend living in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, if such country is other than that whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended departure.

Column 19 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 20 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and date of last departure).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894–1897, Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 36.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 30, if alien has been excluded and deported within 1 year, and in answering 31, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant at any time, authority in the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission should be shown.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

Column 12 (Serial number of document presented).—Prefix serial number of document with abbreviation "QIV", "NQIV", "PV", or "RP", as appropriate, to designate whether it is Quota Immigration Visa, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Passport Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as section 4 (a).

Column 13.—This question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Verifications of landing, etc.).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 15 should show the country, city or town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend living in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, if such country is other than that whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended departure.

Column 19 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 20 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and date of last departure).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894–1897, Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 36.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 30, if alien has been excluded and deported within 1 year, and in answering 31, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant at any time, authority in the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission should be shown.

LIST OF RACES OR PEOPLES

"Race or people" is to be determined by the stock from which aliens spring and the language they speak. The original stock or blood shall be the basis of the classification, the mother tongue to be used only to assist in determining the original stock.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recording on separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the initials of technical advisers, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 2 (Head-tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following questions: "Read what language [or, if exemption is claimed, upon what ground]." In answering this question the language or dialect the alien is able to read should be stated. If alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifests should be carefully revised by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and, similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien with admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Serial number of document presented).—Prefix serial number of document with abbreviation "QIV", "NQIV", "PV", or "RP", as appropriate, to designate whether it is Quota Immigration Visa, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Passport Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as section 4 (a).

Column 13.—This question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Verifications of landing, etc.).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 15 should show the country, city or town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend living in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, if such country is other than that whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended departure.

Column 19 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 20 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and date of last departure).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894–1897, Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 36.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 30, if alien has been excluded and deported within 1 year, and in answering 31, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant at any time, authority in the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission should be shown.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Record on separate manifests firmly and plainly and consecutively, as defined by the immigration Act of 1.5.1.: and also record on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class. Where there is no tourist or third class, those aliens who do not pass such inspection are to be listed on the same manifest after those traveling in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate separate manifests should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on list.).—Start anew with No. 1 on each manifest.

Column 2 (Name in full: Family name. Given names.).—Surname (family name) should be written in capitals. Then a comma, then the given name or names in full, not initials. Where there is no surname, the given name should be entered in the surname column. The names of all members of a family should appear, when they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate separate manifests should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 3 (Head-tax status).—Steamship line should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The warrant in this column should be expressed in years of age, last birthday, for infants under one year old, the months, the letter m following. Where no age is known, the fact should be stated.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The warrant should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, mechanic, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, miner, farmer, laborer, tailor, trader, not laborer, boy laborer, servant, etc., but not simply gentleman.

A distinction should be made between terms and mere importe, regardless of the amount of money involved, as follows:

A term is one who obtains a term, either for himself or for others.

A terme is one who obtains or makes a term for the mere who otherwise it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, but correction should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following questions: "Read and understand" [or] "Understand but cannot read and write" [or] "Can neither read nor write". If alien is illiterate, but can read and write in some language other than English, mark "Can read and write" and state the language.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should be the race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject. consult of this pertinent residence, but consult of this, but maintain the distinction between race and country. For instance, "France" abbreviate under the head of country does not mean "French" to race or people, and similarly "French" abbreviate under the head of race or people does not mean "France" to country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien to race might be citizen or subject of any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

GUAM

The term "Guam" refers to the Guam people (not Negroes).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cuban or Negroes.

HAWAIIAN

"Hawaiian Aborigine" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other West Indies, or the United States. North or South America, Europe or Africa. Any alien having a visible admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The place should be given as the country, city or town.

Column 12 (Race or [illegible]).—Strike out the words not applicable to the city or town.

Column 13 (Last permanent residence).—Applies to an intended residence in the United States. Answer should include street and number.

Column 14 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative, friend in country whence alien came, give name and address of friend in country to which alien or sailor, if such person is to report to relative or friend in the United States or elsewhere. Address should include street and number.

Column 15 (Final destination).—The warrant to this question shall be the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute such permanent residence. The entry should be qualified the place (city or town) of intended residence in the United States, consult. It should be either a city (town) or State, and port of intended debarkation.

Column 16 (Whether going to join relative or friend, with name and complete address: The warrant should be either yes or no (no places).

Column 17 (Ever in prison, almshouse, asylum, hospital, or other institution: The warrant should be yes or no (no places).

Column 18 (Ever been supported by others: The entry should be yes or no (yes or no). If yes, explain fully.

Column 19 (Height).—The warrant should be expressed in feet and inches: thus, 5 ft. 6 in.

Column 20 (Complexion).—(Light, medium, ruddy, florid, or other terms: Think before answering.)

Column 21 (Color of hair).—(Auburn, light, dark, sandy, gray, white, bald, or other terms.)

Column 22 (Color of eyes).—The warrant should be expressed by (blue, gray, brown, black, hazel, green, or other terms.)

Column 23 (Marks of identification).—The entry should be yes or no (yes or no). If yes, explain fully.

Column 24 (Whether deformed).—The entry should be yes or no (yes or no). If yes, explain fully.

Column 25 (Nativity).—(Country or place of birth.)

Column 26 (Citizen of what country).—(Country or place of which citizen or subject.)

Column 27 (Whether have a ticket to ship's final destination).—The entry should be yes or no (yes or no).

Column 28 (By whom ticket was purchased: self, friends, or by the United States Government).—The entry should be qualified by (self, friends, or United States Government).

Column 29 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The warrant should be yes or no (yes or no). If less than $50, the amount possessed should be stated.

Column 30 (Whether coming to join husband, wife, father, mother, child, brother, sister, grandparent, uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, grandchild, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, fiancé, fiancée, or other relative or friend: Think before answering.)

Column 31 (Ever before in the United States: and if so, when, where, and how long: Have you ever been in the United States: and if so, when (or period of time) and where, and how long: Have you ever been in the United States before: and if so, when and how long: Have you ever been in the United States before; and if so, when, where, and how long: Have you ever been in the United States before;

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recording on separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the initials of technical advisers, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 2 (Head-tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following questions: "Read what language [or, if exemption is claimed, upon what ground]." In answering this question the language or dialect the alien is able to read should be stated. If alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifests should be carefully revised by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and, similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

"Spanish American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

NEGRO

"Negro" refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien with admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Serial number of document presented).—Prefix serial number of document with abbreviation "QIV", "NQIV", "PV", or "RP", as appropriate, to designate whether it is Quota Immigration Visa, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Passport Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as section 4 (a).

Column 13.—This question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Verifications of landing, etc.).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 15 should show the country, city or town, State, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend living in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, if such country is other than that whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended departure.

Column 19 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 20 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and date of last departure).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894 1897, Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 36.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 30, if alien has been excluded and deported within 1 year, and in answering 31, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant at any time, authority in the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission should be shown.

AFFIDAVIT TO THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, H. KAMAMURA, of the M.S. HIE MAN, from Yokohama, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly ~~swear~~ that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing Lists of Alien Passengers, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by the laws relating thereto, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

[signature]
Master or Commanding Officer.

Sworn to before me this 7 JUL 1924 day of _____, 19__, at SEATTLE, WASH.

[signature]
Immigrant Inspector.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and not destined to the United States, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according to separate manifests those aliens traveling in the first, second, and third classes, respectively, and destined to the United States, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and those who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who are returning from a temporary visit abroad. Each manifest must be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1 for each vessel or each class on vessels carrying more than one class.

Column 1 (Number on list).—Number persons consecutively, beginning with number 1.

Column 3 (Given name and middle name).—Enter given name and middle name in full of each alien.

Column 4 (Age).—Enter age of each alien on last birthday prior to date of sailing. If under 1 year, write "1/12" or "2/12" or "3/12" or "6/12" or "9/12", as the case may be.

Column 5 (Sex).—Enter the letter M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—Enter the word M (married), S (single), W/W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien, as, for example: Clerk, cashier, bookkeeper, etc.; Merchant, manufacturer, etc.; Laborer, miner, engineer, farmer, mechanic, tailor, or other laboring or agricultural occupations.

A distinction should be made between laborers and farm laborers, designating as to the manner of work, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, but corrections may be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of aliens arriving.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—The column is subdivided and contains the following questions: "Read and understand [or, it examiner is satisfied, read with understanding]." In answering this question the word "read" should be understood. It alone is subject to test and claims exemption from the literacy requirement; the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Designation should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should show the race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject. consult of last permanent residence, and consult of first, and immigrants should be carefully trained by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" suggests that the head of consult does not mean "French" by race or "France" by consult. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly be returned "France" by consult. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race or people, and similarly "French" suggests that the head of race or people does not imply

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. According as separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants; as aliens who procure visas from the consuls of foreign countries and those who do not; as those who are admissible to the United States for permanent residence and those who are not; as those who are destined to the United States and those who are in transit through the United States to foreign countries; as those who are in the first class and those who are in the second class; and as those who are in the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the consuls of foreign countries and those who do not bear such consular visas. The names of all immigrants who are in the first class, and those who are in the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the consuls of foreign countries and those who do not bear such consular visas, must be entered on one manifest, and those who are in the second class on another manifest. Separate manifests should be prepared for citizens of the United States, for aliens admissible to the United States for permanent residence, and for aliens in transit through the United States to foreign countries. Each of these classes must be entered on a separate manifest. Each manifest should be prepared in the order in which the names appear on the passenger list. Each manifest should be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1 for the first alien inspected at the port of arrival. Each manifest should be headed with the name of the vessel, the date of sailing, and the port of departure. Each manifest should be prepared in duplicate, and the original and duplicate must be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Each manifest must be completed in every detail before the inspection of any alien listed thereon is commenced. The ink used must be black or dark blue, and the writing must be legible. Any illegible, incomplete, or inaccurate entry may be cause for the return of the manifest for correction before any aliens listed thereon are inspected.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Recording on separate manifests immigrants of the third class and non-immigrants, as defined by the immigration Act of 1921; and also recording on separate manifests those aliens previously in the third class and the so-called former class, whose visas bear the initials of recognized diplomatic and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear in the same manifest sheet when practicable, and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Last name).—Surname (family name) should always be entered in this column.

Column 2 (Given).—The names in this column should be expressed in full so far as practicable.

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be recorded in years. If under 1 year of age, the number of months should be entered; if under 1 month, the number of days.

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be M (male), F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single).—The entry should be S (single), M (married), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should be as complete as practicable, so as to show the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien, if any. If no occupation, the word "None" should be entered. Entries such as "laborer," "clerk," "servant," "student," "housewife," "housework," "gentleman," "lady," "merchant," "manufacturer," "agent," "official," "farmer," or "farm laborer" should be avoided, if possible, more definite entries being desirable.

Column 7 (Can read).—The entry should be Y (yes) or N (no).

Column 8 (Can write).—The entry should be Y (yes) or N (no).

Column 9 (Nationality).—The entry should be the country to which the alien owes allegiance, e. g., United States, Great Britain, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Russia, Austria-Hungary, Sweden, Norway, Mexico, Japan, China, Turkey, etc.

Column 10 (Race or people).—The race or people to which each alien belongs should be entered, as Anglo-Saxon, Negro, Spanish, German, Italian, Slovak, Polish, Russian, Finnish, Hebrew, Japanese, Chinese, Turkish, Mexican, East Indian, Bohemian, Croatian, Dalmatian, Bulgarian, Servian, Lithuanian, Portuguese, Roumanian, Greek, Armenian, Ruthenian (Russniak), Magyar, Dutch, Flemish, Scotch, Irish, Welsh, Cornish, Scandinavian, Arabian, Syrian, Hindu, Pacific Islander, West Indian, Indian (American), Ethiopian (African), or other race or people.

Column 11 (Last residence).—The entry should show definitely the country of last permanent residence. The name of the city, town, or village should be entered, if possible, as well as the country.

Column 12 (Final destination).—The entry should show definitely the city, town, or village in the United States at which the alien intends to reside permanently. If he intends to remain in Canada or Mexico or some other foreign country, the entry should be "None."

Column 13 (Have ticket through).—The entry should show definitely the city, town, or village to which the alien has a ticket or has been booked. If the ticket is to be purchased after arrival, the entry should be "No."

Column 14 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his name and complete address).—The entry should show definitely whether the alien is going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his name and complete address, including street and number, should be given. Initials should not be used, and the word "relative" should be spelled out. The entry should not be "brother," "sister," "father," "mother," "uncle," "aunt," "friend," "cousin," "grandfather," "grandmother," "son-in-law," "daughter-in-law," "father-in-law," "mother-in-law," "brother-in-law," "sister-in-law," "husband," "wife," "nephew," "niece," "stepfather," "stepmother," "stepson," "stepdaughter," "half brother," "half sister," "grandson," "granddaughter," "step brother," "step sister," "step son," "step daughter," "fiancé," "fiancée," "betrothed," "affianced," "intended," "guardian," "ward," "employer," "employee," "partner," "business associate," "manager," "landlord," "landlady," "roomer," "boarder," "lodger," "servant," "maid," "valet," "chauffeur," "governess," "governor," "warden," "superintendent," "physician," "surgeon," "nurse," "attendant," "secretary," "clerk," "chief," "head," "foreman," "overseer," "instructor," "professor," "principal," "teacher," "pupil," "student," "classmate," "companion," "chum," "colleague," "associate," "assistant," "boss," "superior," "subordinate," "inferior," "minister," "priest," "rabbi," "parishioner," "adherent," "member," "president," "director," "officer," "official," "agent," "representative," "delegate," "commissioner," "ambassador," "consul," "secretary," "minister," "governor," "mayor," "alderman," "councilman," "judge," "lawyer," "client," "ward," "warden," "captain," "lieutenant," "sergeant," "corporal," "private," "soldier," "sailor," "marine," "aviator," "colonel," "major," "general," "admiral," "commander," "king," "queen," "prince," "princess," "duke," "duchess," "count," "countess," "baron," "baroness," "viscount," "viscountess," "marquis," "marquise," "earl," "lord," "lady," "knight," "baronet," "dame," "emperor," "empress," "czar," "czarina," "sultan," "sultana," "shah," "shahdom," "khan," "khanate," "mikado," "mikadate," "dictator," "dictatorship," "premier," "chancellor," "cabinet," "chamber," "senate," "congress," "parliament," "reichstag," "duma," "diet," "soviet," "bolshevik," "menshevik," "anarchist," "socialist," "communist," "nihilist," "terrorist," "revolutionist," "monarchist," "royalist," "republican," "democrat," "suffragist," "feminist," "pacifist," "militarist," "imperialist," "nationalist," "internationalist," "capitalist," "monopolist," "trust," "labor union," "strike," "lockout," "boycott," "blacklist," "picket," "scab," "sympathizer," "agitator," "leader," "organizer," "walking delegate," "committee," "committeeman," "committeewoman," "convention," "delegate," "caucus," "machine," "boss," "heeler," "ward heeler," "striker," "slacker," "conscientious objector," "deserter," "draft dodger," "spy," "secret service," "detective," "police," "policeman," "policewoman," "gendarme," "Cossack," "Black Hand," "Mafia," "Camorra," "Carbonari," "Sinn Fein," "Ku Klux Klan," "Orange Lodge," "Hibernian," "Molly Maguire," "Fenian," "Irish Republican Army," "Knights of Columbus," "Knights of Pythias," "Knights of Malta," "Knights Templar," "Knights of the Golden Eagle," "Elk," "Moose," "Eagle," "Red Man," "Woodman," "Mason," "Shriner," "Scottish Rite," "York Rite," "Grand Master," "Worshipful Master," "Past Master," "Exalted Ruler," "Noble Grand," "Chief Patriarch," "Sachem," "Sagamore," "Grand Sachem," "Great Sachem," "Prophet," "Rabbi," "Pope," "Cardinal," "Archbishop," "Bishop," "Monsignor," "Vicar," "Dean," "Archdeacon," "Father," "Reverend," "Brother," "Sister," "Mother Superior," "Abbot," "Prior," "Monk," "Friar," "Abbess," "Prioress," "Nun," "Sister of Charity," "Christian Brother," "Salvation Lassie," "Salvationist," "Evangelist," "Missionary," "Methodist," "Baptist," "Presbyterian," "Congregationalist," "Lutheran," "Episcopalian," "Christian Scientist," "Unitarian," "Universalist," "Quaker," "Mormon," "Seventh Day Adventist," "Dunkard," "Moravian," "Plymouth Brethren," "Swedenborgian," "Mennonite," "Doukhobor," "Shaker," "Holy Roller," "Jehovah's Witness," "Dowieite," "Theosophist," "Rosicrucian," "Christian Socialist," "Single Taxer," "Prohibitionist," "Anti-Saloon League," "Non-Partisan League," "Townley man," "I. INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recognizing no separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also recognizing aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose rates vary from the minimum of reasonable navigation charges to the maximum charged by the most luxurious vessels; and those whose rates do not vary with the class of accommodations. The names of all immigrants, for a family shall appear, when the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Head-tax status).—Paramount since alone makes no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 2 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The words should be written in full, thus: "married", "single", "widowed", or "divorced".

Column 4 (Age).—The words in this column should be extended in years of age, the latter appearing only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Nationality).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

The entry should show the race or people as given in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the qualification pertaining race and the country and municipality should be carefully weighed by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "French" applies under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and similarly "French" abbreviation under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under any one of several countries, including the United States, and both of intended future permanent residence. A mixture of intended future permanent residence, it might show the United States; country, if any (city or town) intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute a bona fide permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, it might show the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended debarkation.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Last permanent residence).—Alaska or an intended residence of 1 year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided must be the last permanent residence within the intention of remaining 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence. If an immigrant has resided in several countries for periods of several years each, the country in which he resided the longest period should be given. It is important for statistical purposes that accompanying consulates accurately upon the country of last permanent residence independent of country of nationality, race, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 13 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which alien or applicant is such country in the alien is going to and final destination. Address should include street and number.

Column 14 (Final destination).—The warrant to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of 1 year shall constitute bona fide permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, it might show the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended debarkation.

Column 15 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The warrant should be either yes (ticket) or no (no ticket).

Column 16 (Whether in possession of $50 or more cash, including equivalent).—The entry should show definitely by whom possessed whether by the alien himself or by others, and if by others, by whom. Any amount of money, draft, or letter of credit, or any other form of remittance, should be considered as cash.

Column 17 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and if so, what, where, and name and complete address; and if not going to join relative or friend, why not).—The warrant should show whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what, where, and name and complete address; and if not going to join relatives or friends, why not.

Columns 18 to 20.—These questions are self-explanatory and the warrant should be filled in as fully as possible.

Column 21 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and how long ago; and whether ever returned from the United States).—The entries should show whether or not (yes or no) in each case and date of last departure. When in the United States more than once previously, indicate the number of times and the approximate date of last departure from the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894—1901, Philadelphia. When in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 22 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and if so, what, where, and name and complete address; and if not going to join relatives or friends, why not).—The warrant should show whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what, where, and name and complete address; and if not going to join relatives or friends, why not.

Columns 23 to 38.—These questions are self-explanatory and the warrant, like all others in the examination of aliens. However, in warrants question 30, it often has been excluded aboard vessel and detained within 1 year, but in warrants it will often have been ordered deported under warrant as was time, and why it appeared to the secretary of Labor to happen to [illegible] aliens.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Incomplete or separate manifests interrupted and illegible manifests will be delayed by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also record whether they have been previously in the United States and if so, when and where. Use ditto marks (") for repetitions of the same word, but not for initials or abbreviations. The names of all members of a family group must be written in the same manner, and those whose names are not given must be included. Write plainly, preferably with pen and ink. Do not fold the sheets.

(BLOCK MAJUSCULES)

The people who are sailing to that portion of Italy which is known as the Island of the Tre Venezie (i. e. Venetia, Cambaldo, Venezia Giulia, Istria, Carnaro, Zara, Trentino, or Trieste) should be described as "Italian (Venetia)" and their destination should be stated as "Italian (Venetia)".

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The place of birth should be stated as fully as possible, giving the name of the city or town, province, and country.

Column 12 (Name of nearest relative or friend).—Every alien must furnish the name of some relative or friend who can testify to his identity and character, or who will be able to give information as to his destination in the United States. Where he is going, and why, he should furnish the name and address of the nearest relative or friend whom he has in the country whence he came.

Column 13 (Final destination).—Write the name of the city or town, and State, for which the alien intends to buy a railroad ticket or continue his journey. Do not write "New York" unless he intends to remain there. Do not write "Canada" unless he intends to remain there permanently. Do not write "Mexico" unless he intends to remain there permanently. Do not write "Europe" or "Asia" or "Africa" or "Australia" or "West Indies" unless he intends to remain there permanently. Do not write "U. S. A." or "America" or "United States" unless he intends to become a citizen of the United States.

Column 14 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and name and complete address of that relative or friend).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be, and if "Yes" state whether husband, father, brother, sister, wife, mother, son, daughter, uncle, aunt, cousin, friend, employer, fiancé, fiancée, or other relative or friend, and give name and complete address of such person.

Column 15 (Have you ever been in the United States? If so, when? How long did you remain? Where did you go from here?).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be. If "Yes" is written, answer the other questions fully. Write the year when the alien was last in the United States, and the length of time he remained. If he went to any particular city, town, or State, name it. If he went to Canada, Mexico, or Cuba, and returned to the United States, he should so state.

Column 16 (Have you a ticket through to your final destination?).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 17 (Whether in possession of $50 in cash or not).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be. Many aliens are admitted who have only a few dollars, but the law requires that they shall not become public charges. Whether they have $50 or not should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column.

Column 18 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when; where; how long; and whether in possession of return ticket).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact. If he has been in Philadelphia, write "Yes" in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact. If he has been in Philadelphia, write "Yes" in the United States before; find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 19 (Whether going to a friend, a relative or friend, what name and complete address; how long intending to remain; whether intending to return to country whence came; whether ever in prison or almshouse; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming for labor under contract; whether in possession of ticket through to destination).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 20 (Whether a skilled laborer, and what trade; whether able to read or write; whether male citizen of country of birth over 21 years of age).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 21 (Race or people).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 22 (Nationality).—Write the name of the country to which the alien owes allegiance, as "United States", "Great Britain", "Germany", "France", "Italy", "Spain", "Russia", "Austria-Hungary", "Japan", "China", "Mexico", "Cuba", "Canada", "Ireland", "Scotland", "Wales", "India", "Australia", "Egypt", "Turkey", "Greece", "Portugal", "Belgium", "Holland", "Switzerland", "Sweden", "Norway", "Denmark", "Finland", "Poland", "Bohemia", "Hungary", "Roumania", "Bulgaria", "Servia", "Montenegro", "Albania", "Arabia", "Africa", "Persia", "Siam", "Liberia", "Haiti", "Santo Domingo", "Nicaragua", "Honduras", "Costa Rica", "Salvador", "Colombia", "Venezuela", "Peru", "Bolivia", "Brazil", "Chile", "Argentina", "Uruguay", "Paraguay", "Ecuador", "Guatemala", "Panama", "Dominion of Canada", "Commonwealth of Australia", "New Zealand", "Transvaal", "Orange Free State", "Cape Colony", "Natal", "Philippine Islands", "Hawaii", "Cuba", "Porto Rico", "Canal Zone", "Samoa", "Hawaiian Islands", "Sandwich Islands", "Barbadoes", "Jamaica", "Trinidad", "Other West Indies", "Arabia", "Afghanistan", "Asiatic Turkey", "Egypt", "Palestine", "Hejaz", "Arabia", "Africa", "Persia", "Siam", "Liberia", "Abyssinia".

Column 23 (Native race, people, or nationality).—The native race, people, or nationality of this alien should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 24 (Last permanent residence).—Write the name of the country which was the last permanent residence of the alien. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 25 (Intending permanent residence).—Write the name of the country which will be the intended permanent residence of the alien. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 26 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, what name and complete address; how long intending to remain; whether intending to return to country whence came; whether ever in prison or almshouse; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming for labor under contract; whether in possession of ticket through to destination).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 27 (Whether a skilled laborer, and what trade; whether able to read or write; whether male citizen of country of birth over 21 years of age).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 28 (Race or people).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 29 (Nationality).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 30 (Nationality of parents).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 31 (Name of person to whom immigrant is going).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 32 (Name of nearest relative or friend).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 33 (Native town or village).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 37 (Whether in the United States illegally).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be. If "Yes" is written, answer the other questions fully. Write the year when the alien was last in the United States, and the length of time he remained. If he went to any particular city, town, or State, name it. If he went to Canada, Mexico, or Cuba, and returned to the United States, he should so state.

Column 38 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when; where; how long; and whether in possession of return ticket).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. If he has been in the United States before, find if he can (or if he has) obtained a return ticket. If he has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate that fact.

Column 39 (Whether a skilled laborer, and what trade; whether able to read or write; whether male citizen of country of birth over 21 years of age).—The entire history of the alien in the United States should be carefully ascertained, and recorded in this column. VERIFIED STATEMENT TO BE MADE BY THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, H. Rasmussen (Name of master, first officer, or second officer) of the M.S. KIM MAN (Name of vessel) from Yokohama (Name of foreign port), do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear (affirm) that I have caused the antigen of said vessel spelling facetiously, to the antigen contained in the enclosed list, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing list or manifest of aliens, 20 in number, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by reason of physical and mental defect, disease, or disability existing prior to the time of last entry; that no one of said aliens is a prostitute or an importer of prostitutes, or a person who has been convicted of or admits the commission of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; that no one of said aliens is coming to the United States for the purpose of performing any labor or service of any kind; that no one of said aliens has been induced, assisted, or solicited to migrate to the United States by the offer, promise, or agreement of another or others to pay the transportation of such alien or aliens or to assist him or them after arrival in the United States, except as follows (state fully): None; that no one of said aliens is a polygamist; that no one of said aliens is an anarchist; that no one of said aliens is coming to the United States to perform labor of any kind as a contract laborer, skilled or unskilled; that no one of said aliens has been deported from the United States as an alien who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who has been deported on the ground that he belongs to one or more of the classes excluded by law, or who has been deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration act of 1924, or who has been deported as an alien who entered the United States in violation of any law thereof; and that I have caused the said surgeon to examine the said aliens with special reference to the matters set forth in the certificate of examination of aliens, Form 502, and that I have caused the said surgeon to certify to the correctness of the entries made by him in said certificate.

Immigrant Inspector.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate inspections there are made, and the sailing vessel may touch at the third class and the nonimmigrant as defined by the immigration act of 1924; but also according as separate inspections there are made, and the sailing vessel may touch at different classes, appropriate cross references shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when two or more sheets are used, but each sheet must contain entries of one class only, and the sheets must be numbered consecutively. The names of all members of a family must be written on the same line.

Columns 1 to 5, inclusive.—Self-explanatory. Data to be obtained from the passport.

Column 6 (Calling or occupation).—The term should be entered as follows: Actor, actress, aviator, author, baker, barber, bookkeeper, butcher, cabinetmaker, clergyman, clerk, cook, dancer, dentist, dressmaker, driver, electrician, engineer, factory worker, farmer, fireman, fisherman, government official, hostler, housekeeper, housewife, inventor, jeweler, journalist, laborer, lawyer, lecturer, librarian, machinist, manufacturer, mason, merchant, midwife, miner, musician, nurse, painter, photographer, physician, porter, salesman, scientist, seamstress, servant, shoemaker, soldier, stenographer, student, surgeon, tailor, teacher, tinsmith, typist, watchmaker, weaver, or wife. If a laborer, specify kind of labor, as coal miner, farm laborer, etc. If a child, state "child" or "none," as the case may be.

Column 7 (Nationality or people).—Nationality of the alien, as Albanian, Armenian, Bohemian, Bulgarian, Canadian, Chinese, Croatian, Cuban, Dutch, English, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Japanese, Jugoslavian, Lithuanian, Mexican, Polish, Portuguese, Roumanian, Russian, Ruthenian, Scandinavian, Scotch, Slovak, Spanish, Syrian, Turkish, Welsh, West Indian, or other specific designation.

Column 8 (Race or people).—The term should be entered as follows: Anglo-Saxon, Armenian, Bohemian, Bulgarian, Celtic, Chinese, Croatian, Cuban, Dutch, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Hungarian, Irish, Italian, Japanese, Jugoslavian, Lithuanian, Mexican, Polish, Portuguese, Roumanian, Russian, Ruthenian, Scandinavian, Scotch, Slovak, Spanish, Syrian, Turkish, Welsh, West Indian, or other specific designation.

Column 9 (Last permanent residence before sailing).—Enter the city, town, or village in which the alien has lived for the past year or more, and if in the United States, the State.

Column 10 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, street address, and complete address of such relative or friend in the country whence alien came. Avoid indefinite entries such as "Friend," "Cousin," "Brother," "Sister," "Aunt," "Uncle," "Husband," "Wife," "Father," "Mother," "Grandfather," "Grandmother," or "Wife of [name]." In case connection is not known, so state.

Column 11 (Name and complete address of person in the United States whom alien intends to join).—Enter the name and complete address of the person in the United States whom the alien intends to join, as husband, wife, father, mother, brother, sister, son, daughter, uncle, aunt, cousin, friend, employer, etc. If the alien has no friend or relative in the United States, so state.

Column 12 (Whether going to join a relative, friend, employer, or other person, and how long such person has been in the United States).—The entry should show whether going to join relative, friend, employer, or other person, and how long such person has been in the United States.

Column 13 (Final destination).—The purpose is that the immigrant may be admitted to the place where he intends to remain for a time at least. If he intends to remain permanently in the United States, the entry should show the city or town and State of such intended permanent residence. If he intends to remain temporarily in the United States, the entry should show the city or town and State of such intended temporary residence. If he intends to remain permanently in a foreign country, the entry should show the name of such country. An alien, for example, who intends to reside permanently in Canada should not be recorded as destined to Detroit, Mich., merely because Detroit is the place of his intended entry into the United States. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of one year shall constitute such permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence. It matters little whether the United States or a foreign country be the country of intended permanent residence, but it must be definitely determined. Such entries as "Europe," "Asia," "Africa," "Australia," "Canada," "Mexico," "Central America," "South America," "West Indies," "Philippine Islands," "Hawaii," "Porto Rico," "Panama," "Cuba," "Haiti," "Santo Domingo," "Azores," "Canary Islands," "Madeira Islands," "Cape Verde Islands," "Portuguese East Africa," "Portuguese West Africa," "Liberia," "Egypt," "Arabia," "Palestine," "Syria," "Persia," "India," "Siam," "China," "Japan," "Australia," "New Zealand," or "Philippine Islands" are not sufficient. The name of the city, town, or village must be given in addition to the name of the country, province, or island.

Column 14 (Ultimate destination).—Here should be entered the name of the city, town, or village in which the alien intends to reside permanently or for a time at least. If the alien has no ultimate destination in the United States, so state.

Column 15 (Future permanent residence).—Enter "Yes" or "No" as the case may be. If the alien has no intention of abandoning his residence in the United States, but intends to return to his native country after a visit, the answer should be "No."

Column 16 (Seaport for landing).—Enter the name of the seaport at which the alien last landed in the United States.

Column 17 (Ticket paid by whom).—State whether ticket was paid by the alien, by the master, agent, owner, or lessee of the vessel, by the alien's relatives in the United States, or by the United States Government.

Column 18 (Have you $50 or more?).—Answer "Yes" or "No."

Column 19 (Amount of money in own possession).—Enter the amount of money the alien has in his possession, whether in cash, bank deposits, or other forms.

Column 20 (Are you coming to join a husband, father, or other relative; if so, name, relationship, and address of relative).—Self-explanatory.

Column 21 (Have you ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity? If so, state full particulars).—Self-explanatory.

Column 22 (Are you a polygamist?).—Self-explanatory.

Column 23 (Are you an anarchist?).—Self-explanatory.

Column 24 (Are you coming to the United States to perform labor of any kind for any person or corporation?).—Self-explanatory.

Column 25 (Are you a skilled laborer? If so, what is your occupation?).—Self-explanatory.

Column 26 (Are you a member of the following classes: Idiots, insane persons, epileptics, blind, deaf and dumb, feeble-minded persons, paupers, persons likely to become public charges, professional beggars, persons with loathsome or dangerous contagious diseases, persons with mental or physical defect which may affect their ability to earn a living, persons who have been deported, persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, polygamists, anarchists, persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, persons who write or publish or have in their possession for sale or distribution any printed or written matter advocating or suggesting the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, persons who are members of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or who advocate or teach the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property, or who are members of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching the doctrine of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property, or who are members of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who have in their possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property, or who are members of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property, or who are members of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who have in their possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property).—The answer should show whether the alien is a member of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by reason of physical and mental defect, disease, or disability existing prior to the time of last entry; that no one of said aliens is a polygamist, or an anarchist, or a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has in his possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has in his possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property).—The answer should show whether the alien is a polygamist; that no one of said aliens is an anarchist; that no one of said aliens is a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has in his possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization writing, printing, publishing, or causing to be written, printed, published, or circulated, or who has in his possession for the purpose of circulation or distribution any written or printed matter advocating or suggesting or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the unlawful damage, injury, or destruction of property, or sabotage, or the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property).—None of these people have been in the habit of the Hyat To in northern Italy (I. e., commissioners, as defined by the immigration act of 1924; and also according to separate manifests those whose status investigated in the third class and the nonimmigrant as defined by the immigration act of 1924; and also according to separate manifests those whose status investigated in the third class and the second-class nonimmigrant,

Note.—Full text of direction 22 is as follows: "Should a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character."

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, H.Kannauti, of the M.S. HIE MARU from Yokohama, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 9 in number, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by laws regulating immigration, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, recording on separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose visas bear the initials of Technical Advisers, and those whose visas do not bear such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 2 (Head-tax status).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Age).—The answer in this column should be expressed in years or months, the latter applying only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 5 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The answer should be M (married), S (single), Wd (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, stationary engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, brass polisher, steel polisher, iron molder, wood turner, etc., and not simply as engineer, polisher, molder, turner, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, regardless of the amount of money shown, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

Steamship companies should make this distinction on the manifests, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the following question: "Read what language [or, if exemption is claimed, upon what ground]." In answering this question the language or dialect the alien is able to read should be stated. If alien is unable to read and claims exemption from the reading requirement, the ground for such exemption should be given.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet. The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, and manifests should be carefully revised by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" appearing under the head of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and, similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CUBAN

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cubans or Negroes.

SPANISH AMERICAN

AFRICAN (BLACK)

"African (black)" refers to the African Negro, whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien with admixture of blood of the African Negro should be classified under this heading.

ITALIAN (NORTH)

The people who are native to the basin of the River Po in northern Italy (i. e., compartments of Piedmont, Lombardy, Venetia, and Emelia) and their descendants, whether residing in Italy, Switzerland, Austria, or any other country, should be classed as "Italian (north)." Most of these people speak a Gallic dialect of the Italian language.

ITALIAN (SOUTH)

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the basin of the River Po (i. e., compartments of Liguria, Tuscany, the Marches, Umbria, Rome, the Abruzzi and Molise, Campania, Apulia, Basilicata, Calabria, Sicily, and Sardinia) and their descendants should be classed as "Italian (south)."

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, Province, or District of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Serial number of document presented).—Prefix serial number of document with abbreviation "QIV," "NQIV," "PV," or "RP," as appropriate, to designate whether it is Quota Immigration Visa, Nonquota Immigration Visa, Passport Visa, or Reentry Permit; and also state section of the Immigration Act of 1924 involved, as Section 4 (a).

Column 13.—This question has reference to the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is self-explanatory.

Column 14 (Verifications of landing, etc.).—Steamship lines should make no entries in this column. The space is for use of Government officials only.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided with the intention of remaining one year or more shall be the last permanent residence regardless of length of actual residence therein. The entries in column 15 should show the country, city or town, state, province, or district of last permanent residence. It is important for statistical purposes that steamship companies accurately show country of last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence, country of birth, nationality, or race.

Country of last permanent residence of aliens who are permanent residents of the United States and are returning from a visit abroad should be recorded "United States."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name, exact relationship, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative living, give name and address of friend. If no such relative or friend living in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country of which citizen or subject, if such country is other than that whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 18 (Final destination).—The answer to this question shall show the intended future permanent residence. An intended residence of one year shall constitute permanent residence. The entry should show definitely the place (city or town) of intended future permanent residence, if within the United States; country, if outside the United States, and port of intended departure.

Column 19 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—The answer should be either Yes (ticket) or No (no ticket).

Column 20 (By whom was passage paid).—The entry should show definitely by whom passage was paid, as self; husband, father, brother, or other relative; friend; steamship company, etc.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of $50, and if less, how much).—The answer should give in each case (individual or family) the exact amount of money shown. Money brought by the head of a family should not be divided among the several members of the family.

Column 22 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and date of last departure).—The entries should show whether or not (Yes or No) in the United States before; and if so, the year (or period of years) and place, as, 1894 1897, Philadelphia. Where in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should show whether going to join either a relative or friend, with name and complete address; and if a relative, the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 36.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers, like all others on the sheet, are subject to revision by inspection officers in the examination of aliens. However, in answering question 30, if alien has been excluded and deported within one year, and in answering 31, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant at any time, authority in the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission should be shown.
